Cosmic Critiques:

Cosmic Critiques, 1990 Gathers ten science fiction stories and explains why each story is successful Critique and Totality Pierre Kerszberg, 1997-01-01 A critique of Kant's philosophy revealing that the relationship between his Analytic and Dialectic is more complicated than supposed something we thought utterly impossible Kerszberg philosophy Pennsylvania State U dives into the Kantian universe and finds the black holes of the philosophers cosmological principle transcendental time the doubled illusion the reversals of reversal oscillating between givenness and nothingness to suggest the author the confusion of his successors Maimon Fichte Schelling and Hegel with whom we sympathize Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Heaven and Earth in Luke-Acts Ming Gao, 2017-10-31 Dr Ming Gao delves into the much overlooked heaven motif in Luke Acts in this critical study of a central element in Christian belief Focusing on several key passages from the biblical canon Gao analyzes them in their Jewish Greco Roman and broader literary contexts to enhance our comprehension of the meaning of heaven and its significance for our worldview Heaven is not simply a static place where God dwells or a symbol of his power but is a dynamic arena that impacts the earthly realm Dr Gao also elucidates how heaven as well as being part of reality acts as a concept that points to the arrival of God's eschatological kingdom on earth This book will enhance efforts to understand heaven which is often viewed as an unfathomable mystery by so many Christians Prehistoric Philosophy Justin Pack, 2025-12-11 Prehistoric Philosophy challenges the narrative of progress and other civilizational myths by looking at their origins in the neolithic revolution Once we reject the simplistic and often racist stereotyping of hunter gatherers the agricultural revolution no longer appears as the first step of human progress but rather as a messy brutal shift that unleashed a host of evils into the world inequality hierarchy disease empire warfare patriarchy slavery and environmental destruction Building on the success of Graeber and Wengrow's ground breaking The Dawn of Everything Justin Pack reads the neolithic revolution together with indigenous critiques using each to strengthen our understanding of the other In doing so he helps us to understand the concerns of many indigenous communities and forces us to recognize our role in the death of the cosmos Building on this the book illuminates the rise of the world's major religious and philosophical traditions in the axial age as different attempts to make sense of justify or escape the evils of inequality disease empire and the loss of cosmic civility By advancing the notion of a prehistoric philosophy this volume simultaneously interrogates the colonialism inherent in the Western philosophy canon A New Critique of Theoretical Thought Herman Dooyeweerd, 1953 Science Fiction & Fantasy Book Review Annual, 1991 Nuclear Science Abstracts, 1973 A Buddhist Critique of the Christian Concept of God Gunapala Dharmasiri, 1974 Scribner's Magazine ..., 1913 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review, 1889 A New Critique of Theoretical Thought: Index of subjects and authors, by H. de Jongste Herman Dooyeweerd, 1953 The Westminster Review, 1896 The Philosophical Review, 1926 The North American Review Henry Cabot Lodge, Jared Sparks, Edward Everett, James
