Place, Race, and Story Ned Kaufman,2009-09-11 In Place Race and Story author Ned Kaufman has collected his own essays dedicated to the proposition of giving the next generation of preservationists not only a foundational knowledge of the field of study but more ideas on where they can take it Through both big picture essays considering preservation across time and descriptions of work on specific sites the essays in this collection trace the themes of place race and story in ways that raise questions stimulate discussion and offer a different perspective on these common ideas Including unpublished essays as well as established works by the author Place Race and Story provides a new outline for a progressive preservation movement the revitalized movement for social progress

The Collected Letters of A.W.N. Pugin Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin,2001 The importance of A W N Pugin 1812-52 in architecture and design in England and beyond is incontestable The leading architect of the Gothic Revival Pugin is one of the most significant figures of the mid nineteenth century and one of the greatest designers His correspondence furnishes more insight into the man and more information about his work than any other source This volume the last of five contains letters from 1851 and the first months of 1852 after that Pugin s health failed and he died in September In the great event of the period the international exhibition held in the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park the display of objects made to Pugin s design which he planned and oversaw was an outstanding success bringing substantial commercial benefit to his colleagues and spreading Pugin s influence even more widely than before The value of his judgment was recognized in his appointment to two committees in connection with the Great Exhibition Frantic though the preparations for what came to be known as the Medieval Court were Pugin made time to write for publication He issued letters and pamphlets in explanation defence and support of the Catholic Church and its re established hierarchy and turned again to the conundrum that had long teased him the relation between the faith and the form not only architectural in which it found expression He completed the book on chancel screens conceived some years before At home in The Grange at Ramsgate he continued to design stained glass windows for other architects as well as his own clients and supervised the production of cartoons he poured out designs in his usual fields of metalwork ceramics furniture carving and wallpaper and branched out not always happily into new areas such as embroidery and the decoration of piano cases The demand for drawings for Westminster where the House of Commons was due to open early in 1852 was as incessant as ever His last child Edmund Peter was born in 1851 only a few months before his first grandchild Mildred Both were baptized in the church of St Augustine which he was still building next to his house and where he himself was soon to be laid in the vault he provided for the purpose The volume also includes some letters which have come to light too late for inclusion in their proper chronological places and some texts of doubtful authenticity
