Ernst Theodor Amadeus Hoffmann

Councillor Krespel:

The Tales of Hoffmann Mary Dibbern, 2002 Mary Dibbern Music Director of Education and Family Programs at The Dallas Opera and adjunct faculty member at the University of North Texas has created a Performance Guide for Offenbach's opera The Tales of Hoffmann. This contribution to the Vox Musicae series presents a word by word translation and IPA transcription of the published versions of the French libretto and her translations of its literary sources trace the libretto's development from E. T. A. Hoffmann's Tales. The Guide includes an interview with French opera specialist Janine Reiss and a Foreword by Thomas Grubb. This well rounded volume is designed for use by singers, vocal coaches, conductors, producers and directors as well as opera lovers. The Seduction of the Occult and the Rise of the Fantastic Tale Dorothea E. von Mücke, 2003 This book examines the early development of the fantastic tale through the works of the German romantics Ludwig Tieck, Achim von Arnim and E. T. A. Hoffmann, the subsequent French rediscovery of the genre in works by Théophile Gautier and Prosper Mérimée and Edgar Allan Poe's contributions to the literary form. Councillor Krespel [in, Tales of Hoffmann: Selected and Translated with an Introduction by R.J. Hollingdale: With the Assistance of Stella and Vernon Humphries, and Sally Hayward] (Penguin Classics). ,2004 Councillor Krespel E. T. A. Hoffmann, 2004-06-01 He described with the bitterest irony the quite peculiar ingenuity with which Signora Angela began as soon as she was his wife to torment and torture him. All the selfishness, caprice and obstinacy of all the prima donnas on earth rolled into one were so Krespel considered incorporated in Angela's little body. Rethinking Emotion Rüdiger Campe, Julia Weber, 2014-07-28 What are emotions where do they originate and how are they brought into being? While from antiquity to early modernity affects or passions were mostly conceived of as external physiological forces which act upon a passive subject, modern conceptions generally locate emotions within the subject. Drawing on the dichotomy of interiority/exteriority as a complex interdependent relationship, they mostly envision emotions as interior processes. Contemporary conceptions of emotion from such different fields as human geography, art history and cognitive sciences recently started to challenge this notion of internal emotions by developing alternative descriptions of externalized emotion. This book reevaluates premodern, modern and contemporary conceptions of affects, passions and emotion by analyzing various historical manifestations of the discourse on emotion. Unlike most previous research which especially in the German tradition often focused exclusively on the rise of the modern Romantic interiority without paying attention to the underlying dichotomy of interiority/exteriority, this study aims to explore the historical preconditions, the internal logic and the possible shortcomings that inform our thinking on emotion.
