

ELEC 1 - STYLISTICS AND DISCOURSE

WEEK 6: Assessment 1

Drama: Hamlet

Hamlet is a tragedy, a type of drama, written by William Shakespeare sometime between 1599 and 1601. Hamlet is widely recognized as one of the most powerful plays in the history of English theater.

The style of Hamlet is like all of other Shakespeare's tragedies. It is mostly written in verse, but more than thirty percent of the lines are written in prose. One reason for the extensive use of prose is that Hamlet contains more comic scenes than any other of Shakespeare's tragedies (SparkNotes Editors, n.d.).

William Shakespeare had no definite purpose in writing Hamlet. Shakespeare was inspired by an earlier play dramatizing the same story of Hamlet, the Danish prince who must avenge his father, and felt sorry for the young prince, and as an expression of his sympathy, he wrote about him. He probably had no intention of giving the drama any more of himself than he gave to any other of his plays. He gradually grew into the play as he wrote it, without any special reason (Cather, 1891).

Hamlet is packed with expertly-used figurative language. Figurative language is the use of various descriptive techniques to create poetic, dramatic, or descriptive effects. Figurative language is the opposite of literal language. The figurative language in Hamlet includes metaphor, simile, puns, and allusion.

Hamlet contains literary elements, such as character, setting, theme, and plot, just like other literary works. The main protagonist is Hamlet, and the main antagonist is Claudius. The setting in Hamlet is in the late middle ages in Denmark and at the royal palace. Its theme revolves around the mystery of death, madness, and revenge. The plot includes exposition information, rising action, climax, falling action, and denouement. The exposition information in Hamlet is that Hamlet's father, the king of Denmark, died. Claudius, Hamlet's uncle, marries Hamlet's mother, Gertrude, and owns the throne. One day, a ghost tells Hamlet he is his father and that he was killed by poison by his uncle, Claudius. He then asks Hamlet to avenge him. The rising action is Hamlet begins to act crazy. No one knows if it is real or just an act. Hamlet puts on a play to determine if his ghost father was telling the truth. The climax is Hamlet kills Polonius, the chief counselor of Claudius, by mistake. Enraged, Laertes, Polonius' son, wants a duel with him. The falling action is that Hamlet finds a letter written by his "friends" with instructions to kill him. Also, Ophelia, Polonius' daughter, decides to suicide because of her father's death. The denouement is Claudius and Laertes plan to kill Hamlet in a fencing match. In
