

A vintage wooden backgammon board is shown from a top-down perspective. The board is made of dark wood and features a classic triangular pattern of alternating light and dark wood. The board is divided into two halves by a central vertical crease. On each side, there are two rows of circular pieces: a row of white pieces and a row of dark red pieces. A central yellow circle with a black border contains the text "Vintage Board Games" in a bold, black, serif font. The board is set against a light-colored wooden background.
