Driving Home Miriam Waddington,1973-01-01 Driving Home [braille] : Poems New and Selected Miriam Waddington,1982 The Collected Poems of Miriam Waddington Miriam Waddington,2014-05-08 This anthology brings together for the first time the complete published works of Jewish Canadian poet Miriam Waddington and features a rare selection of previously unpublished poems The Broadview Anthology of Poetry - Second Edition Amanda Goldrick-Jones,Herbert Rosengarten,2008-09-30 Among the poets new to this edition are such leading names as Americans Robert Pinsky Louise Erdrich and Louise Glück Britons James Fenton and Carol Ann Duffy and Canadians Anne Carson Robert Bringhurst and Christian Bok A number of names who may be new to many readers of poetry are also included among them Ohioan Debra Allberry Vancouverite Elise Partridge and the Cree poet Connie Fife as with the first edition the editors have endeavored to include much that is fresh as well as much that is familiar There are many additions to the selections from poets who appeared in the first edition including selections from the recent work of Leonard Cohen Les Murray and Margaret Atwood As before the anthology includes work from English language poets throughout the world from India Africa and the Caribbean as well as from Britain North America and Australia Although the selections from the work of poets of earlier eras are largely unchanged from the first edition there have been some changes among poems added for this edition are Milton's L'Allegro and Il Penseroso Bradstreet's Employment Dickinson's I cannot live without You Frost's Once by the Pacific and Auden's Funeral Blues As before the text emphasizes work of the past century poems from 1900 or later take up more than half of the anthology's pages In its first edition The Broadview Anthology of Poetry included biographical information about the poets at the back of the anthology for the new edition biographical material appears in a headnote to each poet Two other features are also new to this edition the date of first publication is appended after each poem and line numbering is used throughout The numbers have been kept unobtrusive however as with the first edition the designers have endeavored to give a clean look to the pages of the anthology A substantial section on prosody figures of speech and so on is included as an appendix Context North America Camille La Bossière,1994-01-01 Context North America is a comparative study of Canadian and American literary relations It emphasizes the cultural and institutional contexts in which Canadian literature is taught and read This volume examines how the literatures of Canada might aptly be studied and contextualized in the days of heightened discontinuity and increasingly ambiguous borderlines both between and within the many narratives that make up North America Published in English Twentieth-century American Literature ,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1973 Who's who in Canadian Literature ,1997 The Spice Box Gerri Sinclair,Morris Wolfe,1981 Canadiana ,1976 The Canadian Who's who ,2000 Canadian Selection Alvan Bregman,Ontario. Ministry of Citizenship and Culture,University of Toronto. Centre for Research in Librarianship,1985 Canadian Books in Print ,1986 Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith,1985 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words

Everyday Magic Laurie Ricou, 2011-11-01 Child language is a subject in which everyone is an expert All parents study their children s language carefully if undeliberately and every family has its precious memories of the unique verbal improvisations of childhood For writers who continually struggle with and revel in the mysteries of language the language of children holds a special attraction Everyday Magic looks at the way Canadian writers have written through as distinct from for or about children at the ways they have used child language and children s models of perception to achieve various literary effects It describes how texts might be shaped by child usage and speculates that adult artists often find themselves surprised and informed by the child language they seek to create Ricou examines how the distinctive features of child language described by psycholinguists intersect with the written languages used by writers to suggest not only a child language but also the way a child sees and organizes an understanding of the world The book s subtitle putting the term child language into the plural points out that not one but many written interpretations of the child s perspectives are possible In order to emphasize this plurality and indicate that there are any number of child languages the author has organized his study as a series of closely related essays Each chapter considers the work of a Canadian author or authors with the book as a whole moving from the more conventional writers to those who step outside the bounds of convention Ricou proposes analogies with Wordsworth and Dylan Thomas Proust and Dickens but he finds his principal subject in the inherent interest of for example the Piagetian scheme that W O Mitchell seems to adopt in Who Has Seen the Wind the obsessions with similes in Ernest Buckler the variations on the Bildungsroman in Margaret Laurence and Alice Munro and the persistent experiments with presymbolic language in bill bissett For these and other writers such as Clark Blaise Emily Carr Dennis Lee Dorothy Livesay P K Page James Reaney and Miriam Waddington Ricou illuminates the particular literary languages appropriate to each author s subject The result is a fascinating and unique approach to Canadian literature
