Driving While Black:

Driving While Black Gretchen Sorin, 2020-02-11 Bloomberg Best Nonfiction Books of 2020 A tour de force The basis of a major PBS documentary by Ric Burns this excellent history The New Yorker reveals how the automobile fundamentally changed African American life Driving While Black demonstrates that the car the ultimate symbol of independence and possibility has always held particular importance for African Americans allowing black families to evade the dangers presented by an entrenched racist society and to enjoy in some measure the freedom of the open road Melding new archival research with her family's story Gretchen Sorin recovers a lost history demonstrating how when combined with black travel guides including the famous Green Book the automobile encouraged a new way of resisting oppression Driving While Black Kelvin R. Davis, 2001 Black Travel Writing Isabel Kalous, 2021-11-05 What does it mean for Black diasporic writers to travel to Africa Focusing on the period between the 1990s and 2010s Isabel Kalous examines autobiographical narratives of travel to Africa by African American and Black British authors She places the texts within the long tradition of Black diasporic engagement with the continent scrutinizes the significance of Black mobility and demonstrates that travel writing serves as a means to negotiate questions of identity belonging history and cultural memory To provide a framework for the analyses of contemporary narratives her study outlines the emergence development and key characteristics of the multifaceted genre of Black travel writing Authors discussed include among others Saidiya Hartman Barack Obama and Caryl Phillips Driving While Black by Association J. J. Gathman, 2021-05-15 When I was 17 years old my friends and I had an encounter with the police that forever changed my perspective on humanity As life altering as this experience was it was only the first of more than a dozen incidents of racially motivated targeting by law enforcement that I would experience over the years As a White kid from an integrated neighborhood living just blocks away from a district with one of the highest crime rates in Chicago I found myself walking both sides of the color line I was often in situations where everyone was Black but me This gave me an uncommon perspective that has informed many things in my life Most relevant to today's national dialogue I personally experienced smothering racial oppression at the hands of law enforcement My friends and I felt the physical pain of violent assaults the life changing consequences of false arrests and so much more as a result of racial profiling by the police Driving While Black by Association is a collection of first hand accounts This is a work of autobiographical narrative nonfiction which spans almost 18 years of my life It details thirteen incidents involving racially motivated police misconduct with each episode presented as a self contained story Taken together these anecdotes paint a picture of racial oppression from an atypical point of view Black and Mainstream Press' Framing of Racial Profiling Mia Moody-Ramirez, Mia Nodeen Moody, 2008-05-15 Racial profiling has been a controversial topic in civil rights dialogue for centuries beginning with the Negro Free Registry in the slave era emerging again with the 1980s War on Drugs and climaxing with the 2000 War on Terror This study offers an in depth overview of the evolution of racial profiling in the United States throughout these diverse periods It specifically offers an in depth examination of how mainstream and Black press newspapers framed the phenomena of racial profiling three years before and after the September 11 terrorist attacks It offers readers a peek at the various types of frames ethnic groups and sources that journalists chose in their quest to cover the issue Moreover it defines compares and contrasts the differences in Black and Mainstream media s coverage of the issue and the unique purpose that each media form serves Finally this work provides a brilliant example of a frame analysis carried to its full extent

Letters in Black and White Winkfield Twyman, Jr., Jennifer Richmond, 2023-05-23 Unsatisfied with the relentless pace and narrow constraints of social media two Americans Winkfield Twyman Jr and Jennifer Richmond a black man and a white woman rediscovered the art of letter writing and maintained a years long correspondence about race in the United States In Letters in Black and White they share for the first time their exchange in full charting their journey from wary strangers to trusted confidants At a time when many Americans are dazed confused and angered by the country s current state of race relations they offer a model not only for having needed but difficult conversations but also for a better way forward Marked by well crafted turns of phrase sharp wit and sober reflection they do not rely on those fashionable words and phrases that have been drained of real meaning or are hopelessly saddled with excessive baggage such as antiracism white fragility and allyship Rather on topics ranging from the murder of George Floyd and the launch of the 1619 Project to the debate over reparations and the nature of elite black organizations like Jack and Jill of America they tell the truth as they see it in their own uncorrupted language speaking for no one but themselves Particularly critical of both the ideological battles that fuel media programming and entrench political rivalries and the noble sounding social and cultural projects that fail time and again to offer any meaningful solutions they identify productive ways to unify across our differences ways to find our common humanity and to mend America s divided soul Ultimately they offer an inspirational message of hope and optimism for all one that does not allow the past to define our present or predetermine our future
