Anderson, Edward Rosenfeld, 2000-02-28 Surprising tales from the scientists who first learned how to use computers to understand the workings of the human brain Since World War II a group of scientists has been attempting to understand the human nervous system and to build computer systems that emulate the brain's abilities

Many of the early workers in this field of neural networks came from cybernetics others came from neuroscience physics electrical engineering mathematics psychology even economics In this collection of interviews those who helped to shape the field share their childhood memories their influences how they became interested in neural networks and what they see as its future The subjects tell stories that have been told referred to whispered about and imagined throughout the history of the field Together the interviews form a Rashomon like web of reality Some of the mythic people responsible for the foundations of modern brain theory and cybernetics such as Norbert Wiener Warren McCulloch and Frank Rosenblatt appear prominently in the recollections The interviewees agree about some things and disagree about more Together they tell the story of how science is actually done including the false starts and the Darwinian struggle for jobs resources and reputation Although some of the interviews contain technical material there is no actual mathematics in the book Contributors James A Anderson Michael Arbib Gail Carpenter Leon Cooper Jack Cowan Walter Freeman Stephen Grossberg Robert Hecht Neilsen Geoffrey Hinton Teuvo Kohonen Bart Kosko Jerome Lettvin Carver Mead David Rumelhart Terry Sejnowski Paul Werbos Bernard Widrow

Home Is Where the Heart Is Even in a Chicken House Margaret Hoff, 2020-10-22 God Bless America My Home Sweet Home The Lord put on my heart to write Home Is Where the Heart Is Even in a Chicken House It goes back to the day I was born and my childhood days growing up days with my parents and living in a chicken house while my dad built a small three room house for us to live in Also the book talks about me being bullied in school I lived with my grandparents and my aunt on their farm in California for a while when I was a teenager My aunt is one year and nine months older than me and this also tells of the fun we had and the mischievous things that we did This is telling the way things were growing up in my time now called the old fashioned days houses cars games and how kids made their own fun I got married and had my own family and time went on to be happy times There were also heartaches that the Lord helped me through and healing different places where the Lord intervened and spoke to me in many ways I moved to Texas for eleven years and later on a ranch in South Dakota then later back to Ohio I needed to support myself and I started hauling Amish people and I had different experiences with them That was another fun time in my day The best is yet to come In the pages of this book I think you will laugh cry and most of all be blessed
