Drop Hammer A Play:

Drop Hammer Emanuel Fried,1977 Set in a working class bar on Buffalo s East Side in the late 1950s Drop hammer speaks unflinching to issues that have plagued working people and their Unions for far too long corruption blacklists red baiting the flight of industry to non Union areas and much much more Drop hammer offers a vibrant look back on Buffalo s working class history with many lessons that are all too relevant to Unions and working people today From Red-Baiting to Blacklisting Barry B Witham,2020-04-27 Author Barry B Witham reclaims the work of Manny Fried an essential American playwright so thoroughly blacklisted after he defied the House Committee on Un American Activities in 1954 and again in 1964 that his work all but completely disappeared from the canon Witham details Manny Fried s work inside and outside the theatre and examines his three major labor plays and the political climate that both nurtured and disparaged their productions Drawing on never before published interview materials Witham reveals the details of how the United States government worked to ruin Fried s career From Red Baiting to Blacklisting includes the complete text of Fried s major labor plays all long out of print In Elegy for Stanley Gorski Fried depicts one of the many red baiting campaigns that threatened countless unions in the wake of the Taft Hartley Act and the collusion of the Catholic Church with these activities In Drop Hammer Fried tackles the issues of union dues misappropriation and potential criminal activities In the third play The Dodo Bird perhaps his most popular Fried achieves a remarkable character study of a man outsourced from his job by technology and plant closures Manny Fried s plays portray the hard edges of capitalism and government power and illuminate present day struggles with hostility to labor unions and the passage in several states of right to work laws Fried had no illusions about the government s determination to destroy communism and unionism causes to which he was deeply committed
