Resources in Education, 2000 Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles, and tools for choosing the best books and materials, as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity-oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian, with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy, and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature-based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics, and activities, including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion, and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards.

Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature, which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines: education, English, and library and information science.

Making Nonfiction and Other Informational Texts Come Alive Kathy Pike, Jean Mumper, 2004 Offering a fresh approach, this much-needed text mirrors the features that are traditionally found in nonfiction texts: illustrations, diagrams, insets, boxed materials, to help clarify and explain the concepts being presented. This is a perfect complement to reading methods courses, which includes a wealth of nonfiction titles that teachers can readily use effectively in a balanced literacy program. Packed with ideas and suggestions for the classroom, Pike and Mumper offer everything one needs to know in order to use nonfiction texts in the classroom, from using them in literature circles and as models for writing or for research purposes. Publisher's description.

Exploring Informational Texts Linda Hoyt, Margaret E. Mooney, Brenda Parkes, 2003 This guide for teachers describes strategies for helping children in grades K-8 to become comfortable with and get the most out of nonfiction texts. Written by teachers and teacher educators, 25 contributions discuss such topics as the use of informational texts in daily instruction and the role that features such as captions and headings play in learner understanding. A number of guided reading and writing exercises are also presented.
