American Indian Themes in Young Adult Literature Paulette F. Molin, 2005-04-20 This book analyzes American Indian characters and themes in young adult literature outlining plots and evaluating content from a native perspective Teachers librarians parents and young adult readers will find essential analytical information about a cross section of literature with American Indian protagonists narratives and settings Reviews of young adult publications with American Indian themes are also examined demonstrating how too many reviewers reinforce and even honor stereotypical works Divided into three sections centering on a range of fiction and nonfiction featuring richly diverse tribal groups across a variety of settings and time periods the book begins with contemporary selections examining young adult fiction by non Indian authors as well as a growing number of native authors The next section is devoted to historical fiction the most popular American Indian themed novels for young adults The last section examines nonfiction work including memoirs biographies autobiographies and poetry A rich bibliography leads readers to other resources

Censorship in Canadian Literature Mark Cohen, 2001 Since judgment is enmeshed in the fabric of human endeavour censorship is inevitable since censorship is inevitable Cohen concludes debate over whether censorship itself is desirable should give way to a search for censorship practices that are more just

BOOK JACKET Native Writers and Canadian Writing William Herbert New, William H. New, 1990 Focuses on literature by and about Canada's native peoples and contains original articles and poems by both native and non native writers Directs the reader to the underlying traditions largely misunderstood by the non native community of myths rituals and songs

Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures

Writing a Politics of Perception Dawn Thompson, 2000-01-01 Looking at five novels by women writing in Canada Thompson develops a theory of holographic memory in which texts are performances that invite constant revision remodelling and interaction between narrative memory and potentially reality

Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre, 2016-11-14 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism
