decides to leave George Somehow she never quite gets around to it She s flirted with suicide too but she doesn t see the point A woman would have to be mad to kill herself for the sake of George He s a brute vain and selfish with a cruel sense of humor and absolutely no regard for his wife Someday she will leave him Why not today Pam flees to London where she takes refuge in a lonely sparsely furnished room With a twist of her wrist she turns on the gas and resigns herself to death only to be rescued by a neighbor Tom a former sailor in the Merchant Navy who has just come into a surprise inheritance is carrying scars of his own Bound by despair these two unlikely lovers begin a new life and together they will find a reason to live This lonely middle aged couple finds victory in living searching for love and happiness and overcoming their pasts In its portrayal of women Her Victory has been compared to the novels of Doris Lessing and Margaret Drabble and it is award winning author Alan Sillitoe at his very best Anti-Sport Sentiments in Literature John Bale,2007-11-05 This book draws on literature specifically on the writings of selected novelists and poets to widen an existing anti sport discourse to include hitherto excluded voices from the world of literature The book commences with a review of exiting pro and anti sport discourses and then proceeds to examine in turn the written works of five eminent authors excavating from their writings their anti sports rhetorics These writers are Lewis Carroll Charles Dodgson Charles Hamilton Sorley Jerome K Jerome John Betjeman and Alan Sillitoe In its conclusion the book draws together the broad themes discussed in the preceding chapters Innovative in its approach to sport and literature and remarkable for its not having been previously explored in any depth this book will be of interest to readers from both social sciences and humanities backgrounds A Man of His Time Alan Sillitoe,2016-06-14 A working class family saga set in rural England from the bestselling author of The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner In 1887 Ernest Burton is a robust twenty one year old who sets off to Wales in his best suit in order to work at his brother s forge En route he meets seduces and promptly impregnates a young widow Such is the first episode of what turns into a lifetime of compulsive philandering whenever the blacksmith has a few hours away from his job Within a year Burton abandons the widow and returns to Nottingham There he marries the village barmaid continues to toil and excel in a smithy and fathers eight more children Though Burton is an able bodied provider who can ring a bull and shoe a horse with the best of them his constant adultery harsh authoritarianism and violent streaks make him anything but an ideal family man The Burton children grow up to be rebellious despite or to spite their father s iron fist And as time goes on Burton seems more and more at odds with British society at large Modernity threatens his profession independent living is replaced by the welfare state and long standing customs of patriarchy give way to a more inclusive democracy Two world wars and the Depression inflict additional tragedy on the family As the Burtons struggle to overcome their strife will the bully father have a change of heart In this absorbing historical portrait set in Nottinghamshire a charismatic yet despotic blacksmith reigns over his wife and children but is powerless to control the transformations of early twentieth century Britain Down from the Hill Alan Sillitoe,1985 Postwar British Fiction James Jack Gindin,1962 The Flame of Life Alan Sillitoe,1986
