This edition of 2G presents a selection of buildings and projects by the modern Spanish architect Alejandro de la Sota

Alejandro de la Sota Alejandro de la Sota, 1997 Published to accompany an exhibition held at the Architectural Association in 1997 Key Houses of the Twentieth Century Colin Davies, 2006 Featuring over 100 of the most significant and influential houses of the twentieth century For each of the houses included there are numerous accurate scale plans showing each floor together with elevations sections and site plans where appropriate All of these have been specially drawn for this book and are based on the most up to date information and sources 2G 87: Alejandro de la Sota Moisés Puente, Alejandro de la Sota, 2023-02-13 Alejandro de la Sota probably arouses more impassioned responses in Spain than any other modern Spanish architect His work is the subject of pilgrimages by architects and students looking for a unique way of working an encounter with an almost magical revelation Although he is a very well known modern master in Spain his is quite unknown abroad This 2G issue presents a selection of building and projects of this forgotten modern master from his first works built after the Spanish Civil War as Esquivel village to his master pieces like the Maravillas school sports hall and the Provincial Government Building in Tarragona and his later not so known works as the Post Office building in Le n or the unbuilt houses by the see in Mallorca Alejandro de la Sota Alejandro de la Sota, 1997 Alejandro de la Sota was born in 1913 and so belongs to the same generation as Jorn Utzon Denys Lasdun Aldo van Eyck and Jose Maria Coderch However it is only in recent years that his work has become known outside Spain 0While de la Sota drew many lessons from the modern masters from Mies van der Rohe in particular he also managed to define a language of his own This work traces the influence of de la Sota on Spain s contemporary culture of architecture examining in detail a range of his projects from single family houses to the Civil Government building in Tarragona The Other Modern Movement Kenneth Frampton, 2022-01-25 A revealing new look at modernist architecture emphasizing its diversity complexity and broad inventiveness Usually associated with Mies and Le Corbusier the Modern Movement was instrumental in advancing new technologies of construction in architecture including the use of glass steel and reinforced concrete Renowned historian Kenneth Frampton offers a bold look at this crucial period focusing on architects less commonly associated with the movement in order to reveal the breadth and complexity of architectural modernism The Other Modern Movement profiles nineteen architects each of whom consciously contributed to the evolution of a new architectural typology through a key work realized between 1922 and 1962 Frampton s account offers new insights into iconic buildings like Eileen Gray s E 1027 House in France and Richard Neutra s Kaufmann House in Palm Springs California as well as lesser known works such as Antonin Raymond s Tokyo Golf Club and Alejandro de la Sota s Maravillas School Gymnasium in Madrid Foregrounding the ways that these diverse projects employed progressive models advanced new methods in construction techniques and displayed a new sociocultural awareness Frampton shines a light on the rich legacy of the Modern Movement and the enduring potential of the unfinished modernist project Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclope dia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century s vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries History of Construction Cultures Volume 2 João Mascarenhas-Mateus,Ana Paula Pires,2021-07-08 Volume 2 of History of Construction Cultures contains papers presented at the 7ICCH Seventh International Congress on Construction History held at the Lisbon School of Architecture Portugal from 12 to 16 July 2021 The conference has been organized by the Lisbon School of Architecture FAUL NOVA School of Social Sciences and Humanities the Portuguese Society for Construction History Studies and the University of the Azores The contributions cover the wide interdisciplinary spectrum of Construction History and consist on the most recent advances in theory and practical case studies analysis following themes such as epistemological issues building actors building materials building machines tools and equipment construction processes building services and techniques structural theory and analysis political social and economic aspects knowledge transfer and cultural translation of construction cultures Furthermore papers presented at thematic sessions aim at covering important problematics historical periods and different regions of the globe opening new directions for Construction History research We are what we build and how we build thus the study of Construction History is now more than ever at the centre of current debates as to the shape of a sustainable future for humankind Therefore History of Construction Cultures is a critical and indispensable work to expand our understanding of the ways in which everyday building activities have been perceived and experienced in different cultures from ancient times to our century and all over the world Pioneros de la Arquitectura Moderna Española Fundación Alejandro de la Sota,2022 Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune,Michelangelo Sabatino,2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s Structures and Architecture Paulo J. Cruz,2013-06-27 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persuade Building and the Town Eduard Franz Sekler,1994 Reports of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands from ... Philippines.
