System ,1931 EU development assistance Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2012-04-27 The UK spends approximately 1 23 billion each year on aid through the European Union approximately 16% of the UK s total aid budget Only 46% of this aid however goes to low income countries a figure that MPs say is unacceptable Instead middle income countries bordering Europe are benefiting Turkey has consistently been in the top five recipients of European Commission aid 223 million euros in 2010 as has Serbia euros 218 million in 2010 The Committee is calling on the UK Government to press for funding to be diverted away from higher middle income countries bordering Europe to give greater help to the poorest people in the world In order to make this happen the MPs say Ministers must challenge and change the definition of Official Development Assistance ODA It appears to be being used as a way of fudging the figures to help other European countries meet the target for 0 7% of GDP to be given as aid The Committee recognises that there are a number of advantages to giving aid through the EU but identifies a number of problems with the way EU Development Assistance works Overall the European Commission has improved its performance over the last decade and has recently proposed further improvements to development policy in An Agenda for Change The Committee supports a number of these proposed changes but it does have concerns that conditionality should not hurt the poor for the sins of their governments

Building Parent Engagement in Schools Larry Ferlazzo,Lorie Hammond,2009-09-23 This work is a report on the positive impact of parental involvement on their child s academics and on the school at large Building Parent Engagement in Schools is an introduction to educators particularly in lower income and urban schools who want to promote increased parental engagement in both the classroom and at home an effort required by provisions of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 It is both an authoritative review of research that confirms the positive impact of parental involvement on student achievement and a guide for implementing proven strategies for increasing that involvement With Building Parent Engagement in Schools educators can start to develop a hybrid culture between home and school so that school can serve as a cultural bridge for the students Filled with the voices of real educators students and parents the book documents a number of parent involved efforts to improve low income communities gain greater resources for schools and improve academic achievement Coverage includes details of real initiatives in action including programs for home visits innovative uses of technology joint enterprises like school community gardens and community organization efforts
