Common Fire Leading Lives Of Commitment In A Complex World:

Common Fire Laurent A. Daloz, 1997-07-21 A landmark study that reveals how we become committed to the common good and sustain such commitments in a changing world View the discussion guide for UU communities HTML or PDF A perceptive groundbreaking analysis of inspired lives This is a guidebook for the soul Daniel Goleman author of Emotional Intelligence A truly refreshing book In a day when the political and spiritual air has grown stale with cynicism discouragement and indirection this beautifully written penetrating study could not be more welcome or valuable No teacher parent or civic leader who cares about nurturing social commitment can fail to be informed and inspired by this remarkable and surprisingly practical book Robert Kegan author of In Over Our Heads Eloquent and profound Common Fire addresses what Americans everywhere long for a sense of the common good an emphasis on community and compassion in everyday life a values based politics in the public sphere A compelling encouraging work Jim Wallis author of The Soul of Politics A profound exposition and penetrating commentary on some of life s most important issues Clarence G Newsome dean Howard Divinity School A compelling portrait of people who choose to make a difference and thus inspire us all Rosabeth Moss Kanter author of World Class Thriving Locally in the Global Economy The Ten Commandments William P. Brown, 2004-01-01 Offering a host of classic and new essays surveying the scholarly ethical and biblical debate surrounding the Ten Commandments William Brown organizes his volume into three parts the history of interpretation contemporary reflections on the Decalogue as a whole and contemporary reflections on individual commandments A useful addition to ethics as well as Old Testament and Hebrew Bible courses Brown s The Ten Commandments will be a standard reference for all Decalogue research as it facilitates a helpful balance between moral theological and biblical study The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field Leadership Landscapes T. Cummings, J. Keen, 2007-12-10 Recent leadership books have focused on how to lead where tasks are internal and relationships between companies are straightforward market or buy sell transactions Things have now changed dramatically This book looks at large scale organizations and networks and considers applied leadership theory appropriate to the 21st century Schools That Learn (Updated and Revised) Peter M. Senge, Nelda Cambron-McCabe, Timothy Lucas, Bryan Smith, Janis Dutton, 2012-07-31 A rich much needed remedy for the standardized institutions that comprise too much of our school system today ideal for teachers and parents intent on resurrecting and fostering students inherent drive to learn An essential resource Daniel H Pink author of DRIVE and A WHOLE NEW MIND Schools that Learn is a magnificent grand book that pays equal attention to the small and the big picture and what s more integrates them There is no book on education change that comes close to Senge et al s sweeping and detailed treatment Classroom school community systems citizenry it s all there

The core message is stirring what if we viewed schools as a means of shifting society for the better Michael Fullan author of Change Leader and Learning Places A new edition of the groundbreaking book that brings organizational learning and systems thinking into classrooms and schools showing how to keep our nation s educational system competitive in today s world Revised and updated with more than 100 pages of new material for the first time since its initial publication in 2000 comes a new edition of the seminal work acclaimed as one of the best books ever written about education and schools A unique collaboration between the celebrated management thinker and Fifth Discipline author Peter Senge and a team of renowned educators and organizational change leaders Schools that Learn describes how schools can adapt grow and change in the face of the demands and challenges of our society and provides tools techniques and references for bringing those aspirations to life The new revised and updated edition offers practical advice for overcoming the many challenges that face our communities and educational systems today It shows teachers administrators students parents and community members how to successfully use principles of organizational learning including systems thinking and shared vision to address the challenges that face our nation s schools In a fast changing world where school populations are increasingly diverse children live in ever more complex social and media environments standardized tests are applied as overly simplistic quick fixes and advances in science and technology continue to accelerate the pressures on our educational system are inescapable Schools That Learn offers a much needed way to open dialogue about these problems and provides pragmatic opportunities to transform school systems into learning organizations Drawing on observations and advice from more than 70 writers and experts on schools and education this book features Methods for implementing organizational learning and explanations of why they work Compelling stories and anecdotes from the field classrooms schools and communities Charts tables and diagrams to illustrate systems thinking and other practices Guiding principles for how to apply innovative practices in all types of school systems Individual exercises useful for both teachers and students Team exercises to foster communication within the classroom school or community group New essays on topics like educating for sustainability systems thinking in the classroom and the great game of high school New recommendations for related books articles videotapes and web sites And more Schools That Learn is the essential guide for anyone who cares about the future of education and keeping our nation s schools competitive in our fast changing world Political and Civic Leadership
