Driving In The Dark Isis Series:

Little Sister Isaac Lind, British Car Advertising of the 1960s Heon Stevenson, 2015-03-27 During the 1960s the automobile finally secured its position as an indispensable component of daily life in Britain Car ownership more than doubled from approximately one car for every 10 people in 1960 to one car for every 4.8 people by 1970 Consumers no longer asked Do we need a car but What car shall we have This well illustrated history analyzes how both domestic car manufacturers and importers advertised their products in this growing market identifying trends and themes Over 180 advertisement illustrations are included

In and Out of View Catha Paquette, Karen Kleinfelder, Christopher Miles, 2021-09-09 In and Out of View models an expansion in how censorship is discursively framed Contributors from diverse backgrounds including artists art historians museum specialists and students address controversial instances of art production and reception from the mid 20th century to the present in the Americas Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East Their essays interviews and statements invite consideration of the shifting contexts values and needs through which artwork moves in and out of view At issue are governmental restrictions and discursive effects including erasure and distortion resulting from institutional policies canonical processes and interpretive methods Crucial considerations concerning death violence authoritarianism neo colonialism global capitalism labor immigration race religion sexuality activism social justice disability campus speech and cultural destruction are highlighted The anthology a thought provoking resource for students and scholars in art history museum and cultural studies and creative practices represents a timely and significant contribution to the literature on censorship

Motor, 1962 Motor Cycling and Motoring, 1984 Magic Jamie Sutcliffe, 2021-12-14 The first accessible reader on magic's generative relationship with contemporary art practice From the hexing of presidents to a renewed interest in herbalism and atavistic forms of self care magic has furnished the contemporary imagination with mysterious and often disorienting bodies of arcane thought and practice This volume brings together writings by artists magicians historians and theorists that illuminate the vibrant correspondences animating contemporary art's varied encounters with magical culture inspiring a reconsideration of the relationship between the symbolic and the pragmatic Dispensing with simple narratives of reenchantment Magic illustrates the intricate ways in which we have to some extent always been captivated by the allure of the numinous It demonstrates how magical culture's tendencies toward secrecy occlusion and encryption might provide contemporary artists with strategies of remedial communality a renewed faith in the invocational power of personal testimony and a poetics of practice that could boldly question our political circumstances from the crisis of climate collapse to the strictures of socially sanctioned techniques of medical and psychiatric care Tracing its various emergences through the shadows of modernity the circuitries of ritual media and declarations of psychic self defence Magic deciphers the evolution of a magical critical thinking that productively complicates contradicts and expands the boundaries of our increasingly weird present
