The Blairing Kofi Bush War of Iraq Sitwala Imenda,2004 Several months after the Iraqi war 2003 was officially declared to be over I still awoke in the middle of the night being disturbed by visual images of the war past and on going After several nights of interrupted sleep I got out of bed at 2 am one night and started scribbling my feelings about the war marking the birth of this epic poem I realized then August 2003 that in one way or another I had fallen victim of this war Writing my feeling and to some extent expressing my thoughts about the war as contained in these pages was my way of healing and coming to terms with what had happened previously and what was continuing to happen At the same time I realized that the unsanctioned and often times uncensored visual images of the war which were splashed world wide in people s living rooms may as well have adversely affected other viewers in many countries I hope therefore that by going through these pages others like me will experience a therapeutic feeling leading to a healing effect Alice Clifford, and Her Day-dreams ,1854 A
