Women's Mental Health Nazilla Khanlou, F. Beryl Pilkington, 2015-07-23 This book focuses on the social and societal context of women's mental health. Drawing from multidisciplinary perspectives and scholarship, it pays particular attention to how women's mental health is experienced at the personal level yet is influenced by their relationships and interacts with the larger societal context such as prevailing gender equality policies, income distribution, role burden, peace and security. Specific attention is given to the positive aspects of women's mental health such as agency, resilience, and how women's personal relations across diverse domains such as family, work, neighbourhoods are constructed and influenced by and in turn influence broader societal structures, policies, opportunities. A unique feature of this book is that at the end of each chapter there is a Response section written by a non-academic such as a community member, practitioner, or policy maker in which the invited authors respond to the chapter texts in the form of narrative, poetry, and/or prose according to their various backgrounds, interests, and experiences.
