professional social work education and practice one that will become a well thumbed addition to the discerning practitioner's library Amanda M L Taylor Senior Lecturer School of Social Work University of Central Lancashire UK This book reinforces how social work is primarily a human interactive and relational practice in which emotion and affect have a pivotal role I highly recommend Understanding Emotions in Social Work as an essential text for students social workers supervisors and managers Associate Professor Kieran O Donoghue Head of School of Social Work Massey University New Zealand This is one of those books that you will keep on your desk and look back at time and time again It is written in a very accessible style and is easily picked up Dr Ingram locates emotions within social work practice and guides the reader through a number of case study s and learning activities to explore this concept in depth This has been a very helpful text book during my final placement Darren Gibson Social Work Student Dundee University UK

A History of Architectural Modelmaking in Britain David Lund,2022-12-16 Architectural modelmakers have long carried out their work hidden behind the scenes of architectural design and in presenting a history of architectural modelmaking in Britain for the first time this book casts a new light on their remarkable skills and achievements By telling the story of the modelmakers who make architectural models rather than architects who commission and use them this book seeks to celebrate their often overlooked contribution to the success and endurance of the architectural model in Britain over the past one hundred and forty years Drawing from extensive archival research and interviews with practicing and retired modelmakers this book traces the complete history of architectural modelmaking in Britain from its initial emergence as a specialist occupation at the end of the nineteenth century through to the present day It reveals the legacy of John Thorp the first professional architectural modelmaker in Britain who opened his business in London in 1883 and charts the lives and careers of the innovative and creative modelmakers who followed him It examines the continually evolving materials tools and processes of architectural modelmaking and outlines the profound ideological economic and technological influences that have shaped the profession's development Illustrated with over one hundred photographs of architectural models from previously undocumented archives this book will be of great interest to architectural modelmakers academics and historians as well as anyone with an interest in architectural history and modelmaking Lippincott's Monthly Magazine ,1884 Lippincott's Magazine of Literature, Science and Education ,1884 Family stories ,1901 Lippincott's Magazine ,1884 The Studio ,1904

Responsible Partisanship? John Clifford Green,Paul S. Herrnson,2002 More than fifty years have passed since the American Political Science Association published Toward a More Responsible Two Party System a controversial report that addressed the lack of national cohesion within the major parties Although parties have changed a great deal since then they remain a critical component of American democracy While the possibilities and limits of responsible party government have been central topics in the literature since 1950 this book is the first to reassess all aspects of the APSA report Here a distinguished group of scholars among them Charles O Jones Barbara Sinclair Frank J Sorauf John Bibby and Gerald Pomper examine the effectiveness accountability and relevance of parties to the democratic process These articles cover all major relevant topics focusing on recent changes in laws that govern parties innovations in party organization party finance and the relationships among political consultants and parties They examine the place of the party in government including chapters on the changing role of parties in Congress and in the presidency and also consider the roles of parties among the electorate examining trends in voting behavior party identification and ideology A capstone essay by Leon Epstein the dean of American party scholars reviews the ongoing quest for responsible partisanship over the past half century These contributors offer a mixed assessment of the two party system showing that parties are in many respects stronger at the national level than they were in 1950 but not necessarily more responsible The most comprehensive description and analysis of American parties now available Responsible Partisanship should become required reading for all students and citizens concerned with making parties more accountable instruments of government The Amateur Stage ,1926 Annual Report of the Normal, Model, Grammar, and Common Schools in Upper Canada Ontario.
