Beau Sabreur:

Beau Sabreur Percival Christopher Wren,2020-09-28 A few weeks after applying at the proper military headquarters I received orders to appear before the Conseil de Revision with my papers at the Town Hall of my native district and with a hundred or so other young men of every social class and kind was duly examined physically and mentally Soon after this I received a notice directing me to present myself at the cavalry barracks to be examined in equitation If I failed in the test I could not enter a cavalry regiment as a one year Volontaire I passed all right of course and a little later received my feuille de route and notification that I was posted to the Blue Hussars and was to proceed forthwith to their barracks at St Denis and report myself I had spent the interval partly with my mother and her people the Carys and partly in Paris with a Lieutenant de Lannec appointed my guide philosopher and friend by my uncle under whom de Lannec was then working at the War Office To this gentleman I was indebted for much good advice and innumerable hints and tips that proved invaluable Also for the friendship of the dear clever little Vronique Vaux and most of all for that of Raoul d'Auray de Redon at a later date To de Lannec I owed it that if in my raw recruit days I was a fool I was not a sanguinary fool and that I escaped most of the pit falls digged for the feet of the unwary by those who had themselves only become wary by painful experience therein Thanks to him I also knew enough to engage permanently a private room for myself at a hotel in St Denis where I could have meals and a bath to have my cavalry boots and uniform privately made for me and to equip myself with a spare complete outfit of all those articles of clothing and of use the loss or lack of which brings the private soldier to so much trouble and punishment
