Because Were Worth It:

Because We're Worth It Gill South,2009-05-04 Every day mothers are making important decisions about whether or not to return to paid work For many working outside the home either part time or full time is a financial necessity For others their work is part of their identity and their self worth The choice to work has little to do with money As they see it their career and their family are twin passions they simply can t do without Because We re Worth It takes a close look at the changing workplace which is under increasing pressure to offer all workers more flexibility It encourages women to be braver about requesting a better deal both at work and at home and to put a real value on their contribution both to their employers and to the wider economy Timely practical and full of personal anecdotes from working mothers in New Zealand and Australia Gill South puts forward a strong case for why women should work on developing their careers while managing a family The answer is simple because we re worth it
