enlightenment Their opinions validated postwar social movements from civil rights to feminism and became the basis of a new world view Fascinating and long overdue this book illuminates one of the dominant forces in American society This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1995 Historical Foundations of Educational Psychology John A. Glover, Royce R. Ronning, 2013-11-11 This volume represents a beginning effort to compile a history of educational psychology The project began innocuously enough several years ago when we decided to add mon material about the history of educational psychology to the undergraduate course we were teaching What seemed like a simple task became very complex as we searched in vain for a volume dealing with the topic We ended up drawing on various histories of psychology that devoted anywhere from a few paragraphs to several pages to the topic and on a very few articles addressing the issue We were startled frankly by the apparent lack of interest in the history of our field and decided to attempt to compile a history ourselves As is the case with any edited volume the contributing authors deserve credit for its positive features They uniformly made every effort asked of them and taught us much about educational psychology Any errors or omissions are our responsibility alone Biographical Dictionary of Psychology Antony J. Chapman, Wendy Conroy, Noel Sheehy, 2016-01-08 The Biographical Dictionary of Psychology provides biographical information and critical analysis of the influences and reception of over 500 people who have made a significant contribution to the field of psychology Written by an international team of contributors this volume charts the development of the practice of psychology worldwide from its emergence in the 1850s up to the present day Biographies range from important historical figures to those who have had a more recent impact on the field including Chris Argyris Donald Broadbent Kay Deaux Leon Festinger Sigmund Freud Erich Fromm Francis Galton Eleanor Gibson Doreen Kimur Ulric Neisser Jean Piaget Herbert A Simon B F Skinner Amos Tversky Entries are alphabetically organized and similarly structured for ease of access and allowing comparison of information Introductory biographical details cover main fields of interest nationality principal appointments honours and places and dates of birth and death This is followed by full bibliographic details of principal publications as well as secondary and critical literature which provide a useful route into further research Following on from there is an invaluable critical appraisal of the major achievements influences and reception of the psychologists themselves Thorough indexing allows the reader to access information by American Psychological Association subject division key concepts name and institution Being, Becoming and Behavior Floyd W.
