Contemporary Fiction Writers Of The South A Bio Bibliographical Sourcebook:

Contemporary Fiction Writers of the South Joseph M. Flora, Robert Bain, 1993-08-23 The extraordinary flowering of Southern literary talent in the early twentieth century the Southern Literary Renaissance has continued virtually unabated showing increasing vitality in recent decades These newer fiction writers poets dramatists and journalists reflect in their work the changing social conditions of the South while also presenting traditional Southern values and qualities Their astonishing output constitutes a phenomenon worthy of being called a Second Southern Literary Renaissance Joseph M Flora and Robert Bain editors of the acclaimed Fifty Southern Writers before 1900 and Fifty Southern Writers after 1900 found that they could only begin to suggest the continuing abundance and significance of Southern writing in the latter volume Retaining the same format they have developed two new volumes for the contemporary period The first focusing on fiction comprises forty nine talented novelists including such popular figures as Pat Conroy Gail Godwin T R Pearson Anne Tyler and Alice Walker The companion volume Contemporary Poets Dramatists Essayists and Novelists A Bio Bibliographical Sourcebook forthcoming from Greenwood Press will cover primarily poets playwrights and essayists as well as fiction writers who have made major contributions to these other genres The essays written by scholars and critics present in each case a biographical sketch an analysis of the writer s style and major themes an assessment of reviews and scholarship a chronological list of works and a bibliography of selected criticism Considered individually and comparatively and with attention to the editors introductory essay these bio bibliographical studies clearly demonstrate the state and strength of Southern letters

Contemporary Poets, Dramatists, Essayists, and Novelists of the South Robert A. Bain, Joseph M. Flora, 1994-11-07 From the early 20th century to the present Southern literary talent has flourished The newer poets dramatists essayists and novelists of this region often use their writings to explore the changing social values of the South while also drawing upon traditional Southern values and culture This reference work is a guide to the writings of 50 contemporary Southern poets dramatists essayists and novelists Many of the authors profiled in this volume have established themselves as writers of lasting significance However the book also profiles the careers and work of authors who are emerging only now as masters of their art Each chapter in this book is devoted to a single author and arranged alphabetically for the reader s convenience Each is written by an expert on the author and includes a biographical sketch a discussion of major themes a survey of criticism and a bibliography of works by and about the author An introductory essay overviews modern Southern writing and a selected general bibliography concludes the work

Contemporary Southern Men Fiction Writers Rosemary M. Canfield Reisman, Suzanne Booker-Canfield, 1998 This carefully annotated bibliography lists sources of criticism for thirty nine Southern male authors each of whom has published at least one significant book of fiction between 1970 and 1994

Contemporary American Women Fiction Writers Laurie Champion, Rhonda Austin, 2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer s critical reception L DBLA bibliography of primary and secondary sources

The Companion to Southern Literature Joseph M. Flora, Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan, 2001-11-01 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Selected as an Outstanding Reference Source by the Reference and User Services Association of the American Library Association There are many anthologies of southern literature but this is the first companion Neither a survey of masterpieces nor a biographical sourcebook The Companion to Southern Literature treats every conceivable topic found in southern writing from the pre Columbian era to the present referencing specific works of all periods and genres Top scholars in their fields offer original definitions and examples of the concepts they know best identifying the themes burning issues historical personalities beloved icons and common or uncommon stereotypes that have shaped the most significant regional literature in memory Read the copious offerings straight through in alphabetical order Ancestor Worship Blue Collar Literature Caves or skip randomly at whim Guilt The Grotesque William Jefferson Clinton Whatever approach you take The Companion s authority scope and variety in tone and interpretation will prove a boon and a delight Explored here are literary embodiments of the Old South New South Solid South Savage South Lazy South and Sahara of the Bozart As up to date as grit lit K Mart fiction and postmodernism and as old fashioned as Puritanism mules and the tall tale these five hundred entries span a reach from Lady to Lesbian Literature The volume includes an overview of every southern state s belletristic heritage while making it clear that the southern mind extends beyond geographical boundaries to form an essential component of the American psyche The South s lavishly rich literature provides the best means of understanding the region s deepest nature and The Companion to Southern Literature will be an invaluable tool for those who take on that exciting challenge Description of Contents 500 lively succinct articles on topics ranging from Abolition to Yoknapatawpha 250 contributors including scholars writers and poets 2 tables of contents alphabetical and subject and a complete index A separate bibliography for most entries
