Violent Minds Matthew Levay,2019-01-03 Just as cultural attitudes toward criminality were undergoing profound shifts in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries modernist authors became fascinated by crime and its perpetrators as well as the burgeoning genre of crime fiction Throughout the period a diverse range of British and American novelists took the criminal as a case study for experimenting with forms of psychological representation while also drawing on the conventions of crime fiction in order to imagine new ways of conceptualizing the criminal mind Matthew Levay traces the history of that attention to criminal psychology in modernist fiction placing understudied authors like Wyndham Lewis Dorothy Sayers Graham Greene and Patricia Highsmith in dialogue with more canonical contemporaries like Joseph Conrad Henry James Dashiell Hammett and Gertrude Stein Levay demonstrates criminality's pivotal role in establishing quintessentially modernist forms of psychological representation and brings to light modernism's deep but understudied connections to popular literature especially crime fiction

Foundational Texts in Modern Criminal Law Markus D Dubber,2014-08-21 Foundational Texts in Modern Criminal Law presents essays in which scholars from various countries and legal systems engage critically with formative texts in criminal legal thought since Hobbes It examines the emergence of a transnational canon of criminal law by documenting its intellectual and disciplinary history and provides a snapshot of contemporary work on criminal law within that historical and comparative context Criminal law discourse has become and will continue to become more international and comparative and in this sense global the long standing parochialism of criminal law scholarship and doctrine is giving way to a broad exploration of the foundations of modern criminal law The present book advances this promising scholarly and doctrinal project by making available key texts including several not previously available in English translation from the common law and civil law traditions accompanied by contributions from leading representatives of both systems
