Continental Philosophy Since 1750. The Rise and Fall of the Self Robert C. Solomon, 1988 Designing the City of Reason Ali Madanipour, 2007-04-11 With a practical approach to theory Designing the City of Reason offers new perspectives on how differing belief systems and philosophical approaches impact on city design and development exploring how this has changed before during and after the impact of modernism in all its rationalism Looking at the connections between abstract ideas and material realities this book provides a social and historical account of ideas which have emerged out of the particular concerns and cultural contexts and which inform the ways we live By considering the changing foundations for belief and action and their impact on urban form it follows the history and development of city design in close conjunction with the growth of rationalist philosophy Building on these foundations it goes on to focus on the implications of this for urban development exploring how public infrastructures of meaning are constructed and articulated through the dimensions of time space meaning value and action With its wide ranging subject matter and distinctive blend of theory and practice this book furthers the scope and range of urban design by asking new questions about the cities we live in and the values and symbols which we assign to them A Primer on Postmodernism Stanley J. Grenz, 1996-02-06 From the academy to pop culture our society is in the throes of change rivaling the birth of modernity out of the decay of the Middle Ages We are now moving from the modern to the postmodern era But what is postmodernism How did it arise What characterizes the postmodern ethos What is the postmodern mind and how does it differ from the modern mind Who are its leading advocates Most important of all what challenges does this cultural shift present to the church which must proclaim the gospel to the emerging postmodern generation Stanley Grenz here charts the postmodern landscape He shows the threads that link art and architecture philosophy and fiction literary theory and television He shows how the postmodern phenomenon has actually been in the making for a century and then introduces readers to the gurus of the postmodern mind set What he offers here is truly an indispensable guide for understanding today's culture Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination Continental Philosophy David West, 2010-12-28 Previous ed published as An introduction to Continental philosophy 1996 Journal of the History of Philosophy, 1990 The Empiricists R. S. Woolhouse, 1988 Setting the British empiricists Locke Berkeley and Hume in their contemporary and cultural context Woolhouse examines their approaches to philosophy and their significance to 20th century thought and looks at what the empiricists actually have to say rather than their classification as such Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullan, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1999 A revised and updated guide to reference material It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area be it journal article CD ROM on line database bibliography encyclopaedia monograph or directory It features full critical annotations and reviewers comments and comprehensive author title and subject indexes The contents include philosophy and psychology religion social sciences sociology statistics politics economics labour and employment land and property business organizations finance and banking and economic surveys economic policies and controls trade and commerce business and management and law public administration social services and welfare education customs and traditions geography biography and history Continental Philosophy: A Very Short Introduction Simon Critchley, 2001-02-22 Critchley discusses the ideas and approaches of philosophers such as Kant Hegel Nietzsche and Husserl and introduces key concepts such as existentialism nihilism and phenomenology by explaining their place in the continental tradition The Visva-Bharati Journal of Philosophy, 1994 Journal of Indian Council of Philosophical Research, 2005 National Legal Bibliography, 1988 Central Works of Philosophy: The nineteenth century John Shand, 2005 Vol 3 explores some of the most philosophical works of the nineteenth century Going Beyond Helga Schier, 1993 Psychology for the Other Edwin E. Gantt, Richard N. Williams, 2002 This book the first of its kind is a systematic and broad based attempt to bring to psychology the intriguing work of French phenomenologist Emmanuel Levinas Because contemporary psychology in its adherence to the philosophical and methodological underpinnings of naturalistic science too often abandons questions about morality and ethical obligation Levinas s writings about the experience of the face of the Other and the ethical obligation therein become particularly relevant In ten original essays by distinguished scholars some philosophers some clinicians and some academic psychologists the potential and the experiential impact of Levinas s work in the understanding of our fundamental human nature and the practice of psychotherapy are explored Ultimately the intention is to create a new discipline of psychology namely a science of the ethical Beyond Foundationalism Stanley James Grenz, John R. Franke, 2001 What role does scripture play in the task of the church What value do past theological constructs offer today How does culture affect theological reflection In this book the authors move past the Enlightenment foundational approach to offer a methodology for doing theology in a postmodern age Writing for readers of all denominations they propose a new theological method that uses three sources the Spirit speaking authoritatively through the biblical text tradition providing a historical interpretative framework and culture as the context for constructive theological reflection This method they argue fosters a Christian theology that acknowledges the whole of God Father Son and Spirit takes full account of the experience of the faith community and is future oriented Making Identity Matter Robin Williams, 2000 Making Identity Matter provides a clear and lively critique of a variety of uses of the concept of identity within sociology and associated human sciences In the early chapters Robin Williams draws on a range of historical and contemporary sources to describe and discuss some common images of identity as subjective achievement as social location and as discursive effect In later chapters the author explores recent empirical studies which have argued for the suspension or modification of conventional theoretical assertions about how and why identity matters to human subjects in their ordinary lives Williams concludes by endorsing recent arguments for detailed descriptions of the ways in which identity matters arise and are dealt with within and through the accountability of social interaction Making Identity Matter will be essential reading for all those involved in the human sciences who are concerned to understand the significance accorded to identity within the wider effort to examine the relationship between subjectivity action and social and cultural institutions

India Javeed Alam,1999 The most pertinent social economic and political issues confronting India today center around the question of modernity In this book Javeed Alam seeks to untangle the complex and often contradictory constructions of modernity He suggests new ways of approaching modernity which are liberatory rather than oppressive and may help in the struggle for a more equitable and just society both within the country and in the wider world

"The Woman Will Overcome the Warrior" Nicholas John Ansell,1994 This book is an analysis of and response to the feminist theology of Rosemary Radford Ruether It covers her theological methodology by focusing on her approach to tradition experience and normativity It also discusses her analysis of the origin nature and development of patriarchy and her approach to key topics in systematic theology such as anthropology evil mariology ecclesiology Christology nature eschatology and God The unifying focus of this wide ranging study is the relationship between Ruether s feminist and Christian commitments The author s ideas on what it means to develop a feminist theology in a distinctively Christian way and a Christian theology in a distinctively feminist way are worked out in the same areas of systematic philosophical and biblical theology in which Ruether s thought is analyzed Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies
