Continuum studies in medieval history, Richard of St. Victor's Theory of Imagination Ritva Palmén, 2014-08-21
Richard of St Victor d 1173 developed original ideas about the faculty of imagination in a twelfth century Parisian context Related to the historical study of philosophical psychology Richard of St Victor s Theory of Imagination acknowledges that the faculty of imagination being a necessary precondition for human reasoning and a link between soul and body plays an important role in Richard s understanding of the human soul Richard also deals with the interpretation of biblical language metaphors rhetoric and the possibility of creative imagination Considering all these aspects of the imagination in Richard s texts improves our understanding of his theological epistemology and sheds new light on the theory of the imagination in the history of medieval philosophy in general Undergraduate Announcement Princeton University, 1975 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Stanford Bulletin, 1996 ISUF, Urban Morphology and Human Settlements Vítor Oliveira, 2024-07-03 This book offers insight into the most important scientific society on urban morphology worldwide the International Seminar on Urban Form ISUF After addressing the three decade history of ISUF the book analyses the present and future of this scientific society of urban morphology and of human settlements This timely and fundamental reflection gathers contributions from present and past leadership of ISUF since its inception in 1994 Over the last three decades the urban world has undergone major changes the urban population is now higher than the rural population more than half of the world s population lives on a single continent Asia home to almost three billion people in China and India alone so geographical imbalance is considerable and while half of the urban population still lives in small cities of fewer than 300 000 inhabitants the number of megacities has increased significantly How does the physical form of cities in different parts of the world respond to these dynamics Can cities preserve fundamental elements of humankind s urban heritage while accommodating changes driven by the main socioeconomic and environmental needs of today The field of urban morphology has been continuously adjusting to the essential dynamics of its object of study While developing and strengthening its most robust theories concepts and methods designed after the mid twentieth century urban morphology has been able to integrate innovative approaches for describing and explaining the emerging dynamics and patterns of urban form often incorporating groundbreaking technologies for data collection analysis modelling and simulation But what is the role of urban morphology in science and society today How effective is it in communicating a rigorous understanding of the urban landscape both to academics and researchers in other fields and to citizens in general How successful is it in providing practitioners with relevant and useful knowledge that informs their action on cities form and structure through spatial planning urban design and architecture This book addresses these fundamental questions offering academics researchers and practitioners comprehensive knowledge on human settlements the field of urban morphology and the role of ISUF in promoting groundbreaking morphological thought Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie,2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense University Curricula in the Marine Sciences and Related Fields ,1979

General Catalog -- University of California, Santa Cruz University of California, Santa Cruz,1989 Speaking in God's Name Khaled Abou El Fadl,2014-10-01 Drawing on both religious and secular sources this challenging book argues that divinely ordained law is frequently misinterpreted by Muslim authorities at the expense of certain groups including women Khaled Abou El Fadl cites a series of injustices in Islamic society and ultimately proposes a return to the original ethics at the heart of the Muslim legal system Religious Tourism Tzung-Cheng (TC) Huan,Anestis K. Fotiadis,Nikolaos Stylos,2024-12-16 This book unlocks the global mosaic of religious pilgrimage and global tourism Through vivid narratives and scholarly insights each chapter in this volume invites readers to explore the sacred spaces and spiritual journeys that shape diverse faith traditions The first section of the book explores the interplay of spirituality and tourism across diverse global destinations from the vibrant hues of Amritsar to the serene pilgrimage sites of Santiago de Compostela The second section of the book delves into the mystical allure of the Himalayan region uncovering legends of Naimisharanya and the sacred peaks of Nepal s Sagarmatha With a rich blend of history anthropology and spirituality Religious Tourism A Global Perspective offers an immersive exploration of the transformative power of religious travel Engaging and enlightening this volume is a must read for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of the global phenomenon of religious tourism The chapters in this book were originally published in Tourism Recreation Research Catalog University of Colorado Boulder,1996 Dictionary of Untranslatables Barbara Cassin,Emily Apter,Jacques Lezra,Michael Wood,2014-02-09 Characters in some languages particularly Hebrew and Arabic may not display properly due to device limitations Transliterations of terms appear before the representations in foreign characters This is an encyclopedic dictionary of close to 400 important philosophical literary and political terms and concepts that defy easy or any translation from one language and culture to another Drawn from more than a dozen languages terms such as Dasein German pravda Russian saudade Portuguese and stato Italian are thoroughly examined in all their cross linguistic and cross cultural complexities Spanning the classical medieval early modern modern and contemporary periods these are terms that influence thinking across the humanities The entries written by more than 150 distinguished scholars describe the origins and meanings of each term the history and context of its usage its translations into other languages and its use in notable texts The dictionary also includes essays on the special characteristics of particular languages English French German Greek Italian Portuguese Russian and Spanish Originally published in French this one of a kind reference work is now available in English for the first time with new contributions from Judith Butler Daniel Heller Roazen Ben Kafka Kevin McLaughlin Kenneth Reinhard Stella Sandford Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Jane Tylus Anthony Vidler Susan Wolfson Robert J C Young and many more The result is an invaluable reference for students scholars and general readers interested in the multilingual lives of some of our most influential words and ideas Covers close to 400 important philosophical literary and political terms that defy easy translation between languages and cultures Includes terms from more than a dozen languages Entries written by more than 150 distinguished thinkers Available in English for the first time with new contributions by Judith Butler Daniel Heller Roazen Ben Kafka Kevin McLaughlin Kenneth Reinhard Stella Sandford Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Jane Tylus Anthony Vidler Susan Wolfson Robert J C Young and many more Contains extensive cross references and bibliographies An invaluable resource for students and scholars across the humanities Exploring Human Geography Stephen Daniels, Roger Lee, 2014-05-01 A lively and stimulating resource for all first year students of human geography this introductory Reader comprises key published writings from the main fields of human geography Because the subject is both broad and necessarily only loosely defined a principal aim of this book is to present a view of the subject which is theoretically informed and yet recognises that any view is partial contingent and subject to change The extracts selected are accessible and raise issues of method and theory as well as fact The editors have chosen articles that not only represent main currents in the present flow of academic geography but which are also responsive to developments outside of the discipline Their selection contains a mixture of established and recent writings and each section features a contextualizing introduction and detailed suggestions for further reading

Apostates, Hybrids, or True Jews? Raymond Lillevik, 2014-07-03 This book explores the relationship between Christian faith and Jewish identity from the perspective of three Jewish believers in Jesus living in eastern and central Europe before World War 1 Rudolf Hermann Chaim Gurland Christian Theophilus Lucky Chaim Jedidjah Pollak and Isaac Ignatz Lichtenstein They were all rabbis or had rabbinic education and were in different ways combining their faith in Jesus as Messiah with a Jewish identity The book offers a biographical study of the three men and an analysis of their understandings of identity This analysis considers five categories for identification the relation of Gurland Lucky and Lichtenstein to Jewish tradition to the Jewish people to Christian tradition to the Christian community and to the network of Jewish believers in Jesus Lillevik argues that Gurland Lucky and Lichtenstein in very different ways transcended essentialist as well as constructionist ideas of Jewish and Christian identity Catalogs of Courses University of California, Berkeley, 1982 Includes general and summer catalogs issued between 1878 1879 and 1995 1997 General Catalogue Issue Massachusetts Institute of Technology,1971      The Cumulative Book Index ,1983 A world list of books in the English language      The Cambridge Handbook of Language Policy Bernard Spolsky,2012-03 This is the first Handbook to deal with language policy as a whole and is a complete state of the field survey covering language practices beliefs about language varieties and methods and agencies for language management It will be welcomed by students researchers and language professionals in linguistics education and politics      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978
