Contours Of Christian Philosophy:

Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 1975 Contours of Christian Philosophy, 19?? Philosophy of Religion C. Stephen Evans, R. Zachary Manis, 2010-02-23 With over 40 000 copies in print since its original publication in 1982 Steve Evans s Philosophy of Religion has served many generations of students In this new edition Zach Manis joins Evans in a thorough revamping of arguments and information while maintaining the qualities of clarity and brevity that made the first edition so appreciated Metaphysics William Hasker, 1983 Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 2002 Kalsbeek clearly a true believer but otherwise not identified introduces general readers interested in Christian philosophy to Dooyeweerd s law Free U Philosophy of the Cosmonomic Idea He begins by perusing the nature of philosophy itself then discusses such topics as sphere sovereignty the faith aspect in restrictive and expansive functions the experience of identity structures of human society the problem of the Christian state types of enkaptic interlacements and the elements of philosophical anthropology The translation into English passed through several hands no Dutch publication is cited Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 1975

Metaphysics William Hasker, 1983-08-16 Helping readers create a consistently Christian worldview William Hasker addresses key questions of metaphysics and discusses possible answers In the Contours of Christian Philosophy series

Epistemology W. Jay Wood, 2009-08-20 In this study of how we know what we know W Jay Wood surveys current views of foundationalism epistemic justification and reliabilism Philosophy of Religion C. Stephen Evans, 1985 Is there a God How can we know What can we know about God These questions are the focal points of the philosophy of religion C Stephen Evans wrestles with these issues looking at the classical arguments for God s existence and examining the contemporary challenges to theism from sociology psychology and philosophy He investigates the meaning and significance of personal religious experience revelation and miracles and looks at how religious pluralism relates to individual commitment Evans Ph D Yale is curator of the Howard and Edna Hong Kierkegaard Library and associate professor of philosophy at St Olaf College Along with editing the Contours of Christian Philosophy series he has written several books including Subjectivity and Religious Belief The Scandal of the Evangelical Mind Mark A. Noll, 1995-10-19 The scandal of the evangelical mind is that there is not much of an evangelical mind So begins this award winning intellectual history and critique of the evangelical movement by one of evangelicalism s most respected historians Unsparing in his judgment Mark Noll ask why the largest single group of religious Americans who enjoy increasing wealth status and political influence have contributed so little to rigorous intellectual scholarship in North America In nourishing believers in the simple truths of the gospel why have evangelicals failed at sustaining a serious intellectual life and abandoned the universities the arts and other realms of high culture Noll is probing and forthright in his analysis of how this situation came about but he doesn t end there Challenging the evangelical community he sets out to find within evangelicalism itself resources for turning the situation around

Epistemology, the Justification of Belief David L. Wolfe, 1982 The Contours of Christian Philosophy series will consist of short introductory level textbooks in the various fields of philosophy These books will introduce readers to major problems and alternative ways of dealing with those problems These books however will differ from most in that they will evaluate alternative viewpoints not only with regard to their general strength but also with regard to their value in the construction of a Christian world and life view Thus the books will explore the implications of the various views for Christian theology as well as the implications that Christian convictions might have for the philosophical issues discussed It is crucial that Christians attain a greater degree of philosophical awareness in order to improve the quality of general scholarship and evangelical theology

Philosophy of Education Michael L. Peterson, 1986

Holmes, 2009-08-20 Arthur Holmes addresses the questions What is good What is right How can we know In this second edition he also surveys a variety of approaches to ethics including cultural relativism emotivism ethical egoism and utilitarianism all with an acknowledgment of the new postmodern environment

Natural Signs and Knowledge of God C. Stephen Evans, 2010-05-27 Is there such a thing as natural knowledge of God C Stephen Evans presents the case for understanding theistic arguments as expressions of natural signs in order to gain a new perspective both on their strengths and weaknesses Three classical much discussed theistic arguments cosmological teleological and moral are examined for the natural signs they embody At the heart of this book lie several relatively simple ideas One is that if there is a God of the kind accepted by Christians Jews and Muslims then it is likely that a natural knowledge of God is possible Another is that this knowledge will have two characteristics it will be both widely available to humans and yet easy to resist If these principles are right a new perspective on many of the classical arguments for God's existence becomes possible We understand why these arguments have for many people a continued appeal but also why they do not constitute conclusive proofs that settle the debate once and for all Touching on the interplay between these ideas and contemporary scientific theories about the origins of religious belief particularly the role of natural selection in predisposing humans to form beliefs in God or gods Evans concludes that these scientific accounts of religious belief are fully consistent even supportive of the truth of religious convictions

Contours of a Christian philosophy: an introduction to Herman Dooyeweerd's thought L. Kalsbeek, 1975

Contours of a World View Arthur Frank Holmes, 1983 In a world ravaged by dehumanizing barbarism and torn by ideological conflict writes Arthur Holmes we have an obligation to rekindle and disseminate the Christian vision of a unified world view But to live and think Christianity in today's world does not come easily It means says Holmes ferreting out the influence of non-Christian assumptions and bringing distinctively Christian presuppositions to bear in their place Contours of a World View which introduces the series sets the stage for this important task Holmes discusses the nature of world views both secular and Christian and the overall contours of a distinctively Christian world view in relationship to the history of ideas as well as to the contemporary mind outlining a Christian view of things as a live alternative to the naturalistic humanism prevalent today
