Contraception And Sexual Life:

Contraception and Sexual Life Prudence Tunnadine,1974 Contraception and Sexual Life L. P. D. Tunnadine,1970

Sexual Life in Sweden Hans Zetterberg,2021-10-14 Now available in English Sexual Life in Sweden is a classic piece of sex research by one of Sweden's most distinguished social scientists Sponsored by the Royal Commission on Sex Education more than thirty years ago it remains the only study of sexual behavior in a randomly selected adult population sample ever funded by a government Because an astonishing response rate was achieved 91 percent during the course of Zetterberg's research the claim that Sweden is one of the few countries where generalizations about national sexual behavior can be made may be stated with confidence Zetterberg's study matches the gender of interviewers to that of subjects From a theoretical perspective Zetterberg analyzes the change in Sweden from a restrictive to a contraceptive society The study makes it clear that with over 1 000 acts of intercourse for every live birth 90 percent of sexual activity between consenting adults in modern Sweden does not result simply for procreation Nevertheless the research yields a picture of a highly responsible society Zetterberg explores the emergence of two powerful new norms when having sex you must use contraception and when in an existing sexual relationship you must not start another one He also examines the issue of abortion as part of a concept of social justice The author compares the behavior of those who experience an unwanted pregnancy with those who do not and explains that abortion is seen by Swedes as part of the provision of the welfare and social justice system Included is an examination of the sexual behavior of young people the age of their first sexual experience the circumstances surrounding it whether positive parental involvement in their children's lives has any influence on their sexual conduct and sex education programs in the schools This translation of Zetterberg's study has been prepared by British sociologist Graham Fennell who also authored a new introduction positioning Zetterberg's work in the history of sex research and comparing its findings with contemporary studies in Scandinavia Western Europe and North America In light of the ongoing controversies about sex education its conclusions remain relevant to policy discussions today The Birth Control Review Margaret Sanger,1921 Find the Cause and Treatment for Your Infertility M D Francis Polansky,2011-09 This medical manual assumes the reader has no knowledge of reproductive medicine It will show you how to eliminate unnecessary tests and inefficient treatments by following a unique step by step formula of fertility investigation that has a single goal a baby for you as quickly and economically as possible Readings in Human Sexuality Samuel Wilson,Richard L. Roe, Lucy E. Autrey,1975 Contraception and Sexual Life L. P. D. Tunnadine,1970 American Journal of Urology, Venereal and Sexual Diseases ,1916 Education and Civic Culture in Post-Communist Countries S. Webber,I. Liikanen,2016-01-20 The vivid discussion on civil society in Eastern Europe that flourished during the late 1980s and early 1990s has faded somewhat and been partly replaced by new attempts to conceptualise the nature of social change taking place in these countries This book strives to continue and go beyond the civil society discourse by analysing the interrelationship between education and civic culture in post communist countries The volume offers detailed case studies written by specialists from the region and from Western Europe and North America examining everyday patterns of civic culture the linkage between education and national identity ethnicity gender and religion the experience and attitudes of youth and attempts to render education systems better suited to the demands of post communist society

Sex Education in Schools Isam R. Nazer,1976 Celibacy, Seminary Formation, and Catholic Clerical Sexual Abuse Vivencio O. Ballano,2024-04-30 Does the current celibate semi monastic and all male seminary formation contribute to the persistence of clerical sexual abuse in the Roman Catholic Church Applying sociological theories on socialization total institutions and social resistance as the primary conceptual framework and drawing on secondary literature media reports the author s experience interviews and Church documents this book argues that the Catholic Church s institution of the celibate seminary formation as the only mode of clerical training for Catholic priests has resulted in negative unintended consequences to human formation such as the suspension of normal human socialization in society psychosexual immaturity and weak social control against clerical sexual abuse The author thus contends that celibate training while suitable for those who do live in religious or monastic communities is inappropriate for those who are obliged to live alone and work in parishes As such an alternative model for diocesan clerical formation is advanced A fresh look at the aptness and effects of celibate formation for diocesan clergy this volume is the first to relate the persistence of Catholic clerical sexual abuse to celibate seminary formation exploring the structural links between the two using sociological arguments and proposing an apprenticeship based model of formation which has numerous advantages as a form of clerical training It will therefore appeal to scholars and students of religion sociology and theology as well as those involved with seminary formation
