Contrejour A Triptych After Pierre Bonnard:

Contre-jour Gabriel Josipovici,1986 Gabriel Josipovici ... Contre-jour: a triptych after Pierre Bonnard Monika Fludernik,1998 A Sourcebook of Gauguin's Symbolist Followers Russell T. Clement,Annick Houzé,Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey,2004-06-30 Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 played a seminal role in Post Impressionist France In his writings and work he favored emotional responses to nature over intellectual uses of lines color and composition In 1888 he and Emile Bernard developed a new style called Synthetism Three groups of Gauguin s symbolist followers Pont Aven Les Nabis and Rose Croix pursued and extended the Synthetist vision This sourcebook focuses on the most prominent adherents of the three schools directly affected by Gauguin s symbolism This is the first comprehensive single volume guide and bibliography of artists in these three important French avant garde movements This work covers the entire careers of 16 artists by providing biographical sketches chronologies citations to primary and secondary literature and exhibitions John McGahern and Modernism Richard Robinson,2016-12-15 John McGahern s work is not easily conceived of as belatedly modernist His memorialising faintly archaic style implies a concern with making it old rather than new suggesting the symptomatic diffidence of many who wrote in the wake of modernism Nevertheless McGahern s statements about the presence of words and the hard won impersonality of the artwork point to a covert engagement with modernist aesthetics Offering intertextual interpretations of McGahern s six novels and of thematically grouped short stories Richard Robinson reads McGahern s fiction alongside writing by Joyce Proust Yeats Beckett Nietzsche Lawrence and Chekhov amongst others Drawing out the ways in which McGahern s fiction conceals and reveals its modernist traces this study considers subjects such as low modernism the complexity of McGahern s time writing and his dialectical construction of the relationship between cultural tradition and modernity in Ireland McGahern s narratives of melancholic return are often read psycho biographically but they also involve a return to the remnants of literature including that of the modernist canon This book will be of interest not only to McGahern scholars but also to those who contemplate the compromised legacies of literary modernism in late twentieth century and contemporary writing Narrative Theory: Special topics Mieke Bal,2004 Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish Culture Glenda Abramson,2004-03 The Companion to Jewish Culture From the Eighteenth Century to the Present was first published in 1989 It is a single volume encyclopedia containing biographical and topic entries ranging from 200 to 1000 word each The Cemetery in Barnes Gabriel Josipovici,2018-03-29 Longlisted for the Republic of Consciousness Prize 2019 Shortlisted for The Goldsmiths Prize 2018 Gabriel Josipovici s The Cemetery in Barnes is a short intense novel that opens in elegiac mode advances quietly towards something dark and disturbing before ending with an eerie calm Its three plots relationships and time scales are tightly woven into a single story three voices as in an opera by Monteverdi provide the soundtrack enhanced by a chorus of friends and acquaintances The main voice is that of a translator who moves from London to Paris and then to Wales the setting for an unexpected conflagration The ending at once confirms and suspends the reader's darkest intuitions. The Cemetery in Barnes reaffirms Josipovici's status as one of the very best writers now at work in the English language and a man whose writing both in fiction and in critical studies displays a unity of sensibility and intelligence and deep feeling difficult to overvalue at any time. Guardian Pierre Bonnard

Françoise Heilbrun, Pierre Bonnard, Philippe Néagu, 1988. The first collection of the photographs of master Impressionist painter Pierre Bonnard. This work of scholarship documents the existing oeuvre of Bonnard's work from delicate nature studies and landscapes in his native France and elsewhere in Europe to striking portraiture and intimate images of lovers, friends, and family. The more than 276 photographs and illustrations demonstrate the range and genius of Bonnard's work and offer insights into his process as an artist. Bonnard's photographs were the inspiration for several of his well-known works among them the illustrations for Parallèle by Verlaine (1900) and Daphnis and Chloé by Longus (1902). The texts and critical annotations make important connections between Bonnard's photographs and his drawings and paintings. Fifty Fifty

Robyn Marsack, 2020-12-21. A Book of the Year 2019 in The Morning Star. This is a rare glimpse into the inner workings of a small ambitious press over a period of radical transformation in publishing. Each of Carcanet's fifty years is marked by an exchange of letters, handwritten, typed, and now emailed, between an author and the editor. Beginning in 1969 with the response to an invitation to subscribe to Carcanet for two guineas, the book traces Carcanet's progress and offers insight into the nature of literary editing. At its heart is the personal relationship of author and editor, publisher, the conflicts, friendships, and vicissitudes that occur at the nexus between the work, its creator, publisher, and reader. Poets are central, but fiction writers, translators, biographers, and critics also contribute to the Carcanet ferment and firmament. Fifty Fifty celebrates the writers, readers, and editor's risks, passions, and pleasures. The Jewish Quarterly, 1987 British and Irish

Short-fiction Writers, 1945-2000. Cheryl Alexander Malcolm, David Malcolm, 2006. Essays on British and Irish authors of short stories written between 1945 and 2000 that are traditional in subject matter and technique and cover social, political, and economic changes that occurred during this time. The Irish contribution to short fiction in English is second to none. Short fiction in languages other than English also plays a significant role in the postwar British and Irish literary world, including the use of the working class Scottish dialect. Echoes and Mirrorings. Monika Fludernik, 2000. This study is the first monograph on the contemporary British novelist and playwright Gabriel Josipovici. 1940 author of fourteen novels and several dozens of short stories, some thirty plays for radio and the stage, and of a considerable oeuvre in literary criticism. Gabriel Josipovici also known as a reviewer for the Times Literary Supplement is now one of the foremost British writers who continue the tradition of Modernism. Josipovici also figures among the most prominent Jewish authors writing in the UK today. This study includes an interview with the author and presents an overview of Josipovici's creative oeuvre. Close readings of a selection of short stories, novels, plays, and radio plays are followed by an attempt to place Josipovici on the map of present day British literature. Contemporary Jewish Writing in Europe. Vivian Liska, Thomas Nolden, 2008. With contributions from a dozen American and European scholars this volume presents an overview of Jewish writing in post World War II Europe Striking a balance between close readings of individual texts and general surveys of larger movements and underlying themes the essays portray Jewish authors across Europe as writers and intellectuals of multiple affiliations and hybrid identities Aimed at a general readership and guided by the idea of constructing bridges across national cultures this book maps for English speaking readers the productivity and diversity of Jewish writers and writing that has marked a revitalization of Jewish culture in France Germany Austria Italy Great Britain the Netherlands Hungary Poland and Russia

Contemporary Jewish Writing in Britain and Ireland Bryan Cheyette,1998 Contemporary Jewish Writing in Britain and Ireland presents a wide range of writers some at the heart of British culture others outside the mainstream who address the issue of Jewish cultural difference in Great Britain and Ireland Editor Bryan Cheyette has assembled a striking roster of writers whose extraordinary imagination and understanding of Jewish experience in Britain and Ireland have transformed English literature in recent decades They include established figures like Anita Brookner Harold Pinter and George Steiner as well as such vibrant new voices as Elena Lappin Jonathan Treitel and Jonathan Wilson As Cheyette argues the contemporary British Jewish writers in this volume defy the authority of England and the Anglo Jewish community All are risk takers who will eventually help replace narrow national narratives and gendered identities with a broader more plural diasporic culture

Goldberg Gabriel Josipovici,2002 Taking his cue from an anecdote connected with Bach s late masterpiece the Goldbery Variations this indefinable book is a collection of 30 individual stories which when read together turns into an intriguing and mysterious novel

Steps Gabriel Josipovici,1990 Two Novels Gabriel Josipovici,2009 After is a mix of imagination memory and desire Making mistakes explores the ironies of relationships involving two couples who change partners

In a Hotel Garden Gabriel Josipovici,1993 This novel by the French writer Gabriel Josipovici is an exploration into the power of memory and imagination also raising the question of how far it is possible for non Jews to understand Jews Josipovici s other works include Text and Voice and Steps selected fiction and drama
