Which Degree Guide ,2001 Contemporary writing JIM. W. CORDER,1983 Moral Rights, Creativity, and Copyright Law Sarah Hook,2023-12-29 This book argues that moral rights provisions in copyright law rest on a misunderstanding or romanticisation of the role of the author The Romantic conception of authorship as a lone genius creating from nothing sensitive and vulnerable has helped publishers push for strong copyright reform But is this conception borne out in practice especially in a world of meme culture of artificial intelligence generated art and poetry and of open source and fan fiction This book probes the romantic vignette of the author through its legal adoption Moral rights are rights that attach to the non economic for example intellectual or emotional interests of an author in their work Much like defamation moral rights see the right of reputation as superior to the right of freedom of expression However unlike defamation moral rights are not protecting against defamatory actions against a person In most jurisdictions they are provisions set within copyright regimes regimes whose purpose is to incentivise innovation Challenging the way we think about authorship and how it should be protected by law the book draws on a wide range of historical and contemporary examples to demonstrate how moral rights can constitute a barrier to transformative creativity While authors and artists require strong rights to protect their ability to earn an income and incentivise creativity moral rights the book argues may in turn actually harm their ability to do so This timely criticism of moral rights will appeal to researchers students policy makers and lawyers working in the area of intellectual property law as well as legal theorists sociolegal scholars and legal historians with relevant interests

Which Degree Directory Series ,2000 Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Denton,1996 This volume presents a broad range of writings on modern Chinese literature Of the fifty five essays included forty seven are translated here for the first time including two essays by Lu Xun In addition the editor has provided an extensive general introduction and shorter introductions to the five parts of the book historical background a synthesis of current scholarship on modern views of Chinese literature and an original thesis on the complex formation of Chinese literary modernity The collection reflects both the mainstream Marxist interpretation of the literary values of modern China and the marginalized views proscribed at one time or another by the leftist canon It offers a full spectrum of modern Chinese perceptions of fundamental literary issues

Essays on Classical Rhetoric and Modern Discourse Robert J. Connors,Lisa S. Ede,Andrea A. Lunsford,1984 Eighteen essays by leading scholars in English speech communication education and philosophy explore the vitality of the classical rhetorical tradition and its influence on both contemporary discourse studies and the teaching of writing Some of the essays investigate the rhetorical and historical issues Others show the bearing of classical rhetoric on contemporary problems in composition thus blending theory and practice Common to the varied approaches and view points expressed in this volume is one central theme the 20th century revival of rhetoric entails a recovery of the classical tradition with its marriage of a rich and fully articulated theory with an equally efficacious practice A preface demonstrates the contribution of Edward P J Corbett to the 20th century revival and a last chapter includes a bibliography of his works
