Developing Generic Support for Doctoral Students Susan Carter, Deborah Laurs, 2014-03-26 This multidisciplinary multi voiced book looks at the practice and pedagogy of generic across campus support for doctoral students With a global imperative for increased doctoral completions universities around the world are providing more generic support This book represents collegial cross fertilisation focussed on generic pedagogy provided by contributors who are practitioners working and researching at the pan disciplinary level which complements supervision In the UK funding for two weeks annual training in transferable skills for each doctoral scholarship recipient has caused an explosion of such teaching which is now flourishing elsewhere too for example endorsed by the Carnegie Initiative on the Doctorate in the USA and developed extensively in Australia Generic doctoral support is expanding yet is a relatively new kind of teaching practised extensively only in the last decade and with its own ethical practical and pedagogical complexities These raise a number of questions How is generic support funded and situated within institutions Should some sessions be compulsory for doctoral students Where do the boundaries lie between what can be taught generically or left to supervisors as discipline specific To what extent is generic work pastoral What are its main benefits Its challenges Its objectives Over the last two decades supervision has been investigated and theorised as a teaching practice a discussion this book extends to generic doctoral support This edited book has contributions from a wide range of authors and includes short inset narratives from academic authorities accumulatively enabling discussion of practice and the establishment of a benchmark for this growing topic

Mentoring Faculty of Color Dwayne Mack, Elwood D. Watson, Michelle Madsen Camacho, 2012-12-04 The 14 new essays in this collection from under represented faculty who teach at predominantly white colleges and universities discuss both the tenure and promotion experiences of faculty of color and are not racial ethnic gender cultural or discipline specific The book is thus not only for aspiring graduate students of color and faculty of color desirous of outside mentoring but also for administrators interested in the professional development and dilemmas of faculty of color Faculty of color describes how they navigated the complex terrain of higher education to achieve tenure or promotion Most of the contributors are at the associate professor stage of their careers and some hold the rank of full professor

Freedom's Journal Jacqueline Bacon, 2007-02-09 On March 16 1827 Freedom s Journal the first African American newspaper began publication in New York Freedom s Journal was a forum edited and controlled by African Americans in which they could articulate their concerns National in scope and distributed in several countries the paper connected African Americans beyond the boundaries of city or region and engaged international issues from their perspective It ceased publication after only two years but shaped the activism of both African American and white leaders for generations to come A comprehensive examination of this groundbreaking periodical Freedom's Journal The First African American Newspaper is a much needed contribution to the literature Despite its significance it has not been investigated comprehensively This study examines all aspects of the publication as well as extracts historical information from the content I Belong to South Carolina Susanna Ashton, 2012-08-02 2010 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Out of the hundreds of published slave narratives only a handful exist specific to South Carolina and most of these are not readily available to modern readers This collection restores to print seven slave narratives documenting the lived realities of slavery as it existed across the Palmetto State's upcountry midlands and lowcountry from plantation culture to urban servitude First published between the late eighteenth century and the dawn of the twentieth these richly detailed firsthand accounts present a representative cross section of slave experiences from religious awakenings and artisan apprenticeships to sexual exploitations and harrowing escapes In their distinctive individual voices narrators celebrate and mourn the lives of fellow slaves contemplate the meaning of freedom and share insights into the social patterns and cultural controls exercised during a turbulent period in American history Each narrative is preceded by an introduction to place its content and publication history in historical context The volume also features an afterword surveying other significant slave narratives and related historical documents on South Carolina I Belong to South Carolina reinserts a chorus of powerful voices of the dispossessed into South Carolina's public history reminding us of the cruelties of the past and the need for vigilant guardianship of liberty in the present and future I Belong to South Carolina is edited and introduced by Susanna Ashton with the assistance of Robyn E Adams Maximilien Blanton Laura V Bridges E Langston Culler Cooper Leigh Hill Deanna L Panetta and Kelly E Riddle Composition, Rhetoric, and Disciplinarity Rita Malenczyk, Susan Miller-Cochran, Elizabeth Wardle, Kathleen Yancey, 2018-04-02 Edited by four nationally recognized leaders of composition scholarship Composition Rhetoric and Disciplinarity asks a fundamental question can Composition and Rhetoric as a discipline continue its historical commitment to pedagogy without sacrificing equal attention to other areas such as research and theory In response contributors to the volume address disagreements about what it means to be called a discipline rather than a profession or a field elucidate tensions over the defined breadth of Composition and Rhetoric and consider the roles of research and responsibility as Composition and Rhetoric shifts from field to discipline Outlining a field with a complex and unusual formation story Composition Rhetoric and Disciplinarity employs several lenses for understanding disciplinarity theory history labor and pedagogy and for teasing out the implications of disciplinarity for students faculty institutions and Composition and Rhetoric itself Collectively the chapters speak to the intellectual and embodied history leading to this point to questions about how disciplinarity is and might be understood especially with regard to Composition and Rhetoric to the curricular conceptual labor and other sites of tension inherent in thinking about Composition and Rhetoric as a discipline and to the implications of Composition and Rhetoric's disciplinarity for the future Contributors Linda Adler Kassner Elizabeth H Boquet Christiane Donahue Whitney Douglas Doug Downs Heidi Estrem Kristine Hansen Doug

Hesse Sandra Jamieson Neal Lerner Jennifer Helene Maher Barry Maid Jaime Armin Mej a Carolyn R Miller Kelly Myers Gwendolynne Reid Liane Robertson Rochelle Rodrigo Dawn Shepherd Kara Taczak Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning ,2003 The Politics of Comparability Rebecca Beth Entel,2007 The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom,J. David Macey,2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001-08 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Writing and Revising the Disciplines Jonathan Monroe,2002 This book s contributors explore key issues in the current state of their disciplines in light of crucial moments in each discipline s recent or longer term history The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Bibliographic Guide to Education ,2002 lists publications cataloged by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library Professing Literacy in Composition Studies Peter N. Goggin,2008 This book explores the following key questions What is literacy What do we mean when we profess literacy How can we create a theoretical map of writing studies in which to locate the ways we define and situate our notions and assumptions about literacy The author addresses these questions by mapping the ideological perspectives on literacy that inform the field s theoretical terrain Inventing Knowledge Nick Taylor,1993 Focuses on curriculum change in South Africa "Bending the Future to Their Will" Margaret Crocco,Ozro Luke Davis,1999 This lively and thought provoking collective biography uncovers the contributions of past women educators who promoted a distinctive vision of citizenship education A distinguished group of scholars including editors Margaret Smith Crocco and O L Davis Jr consider the lives and perspectives of eleven women educators and social activists Jane Addams Mary Sheldon Barnes Mary Ritter Beard Rachel Davis DuBois Hazel Hertzberg Alice Miel Lucy Sprague Mitchell Bessie Pierce Lucy Maynard Salmon Hilda Taba and Marion Thompson Wright_ concerned over the last century with issues of difference in schools and society This volume s reconstruction of hidden history reveals the importance of these women to contemporary debate about gender pluralism and education in a democracy Characterized by views of education that were constructivist customized and transformative their lives and ideas present an alternative model to dominant conceptualizations of education_ one sensitive to the demands of pluralism within civil education long before the present day debates about multiculturalism
