Big Picture Bioethics: Developing Democratic Policy in Contested Domains Susan Dodds, Rachel A.

Ankeny, 2016-07-27 This book addresses the problem of how to make democratically legitimate public policy on issues of contentious bioethical debate. It focuses on ethical contests about research and their legitimate resolution while addressing questions of political legitimacy. How should states make public policy on issues where there is ethical disagreement not only about appropriate outcomes but even what values are at stake? What constitutes justified democratic policy in such conflicted domains? Case studies from Canada and Australia demonstrate that two countries sharing historical and institutional characteristics can reach different policy responses. This book is of interest to policymakers, bioethicists, and philosophers and will deepen our understanding of the interactions between large-scale socio-political forces and detailed policy problems in bioethics.

Reconceiving Religious Conflict Wendy Mayer, Chris L. de Wet, 2018-01-17 Reconceiving Religious Conflict deconstructs instances of religious conflict within the formative centuries of Christianity: the first six centuries CE. It explores the theoretical foundations of religious conflict, the dynamics of religious conflict within the context of persecution and martyrdom, the social and moral intersections that undergird the phenomenon of religious conflict, and the relationship between religious conflict and religious identity. It is unique in that it does not solely focus on religious violence as it is physically manifested but on religious conflict and tolerance, looking too at dynamics of religious discourse and practice that often precede and accompany overt religious violence.

Dispute Domains and Welfare Claims Gale Miller, James A. Holstein, 1996 This volume studies in particular the Work Incentive WIN programme, examining how staff-client interactions are conducted in terms of conflicts, disputes, hearings, meetings, and legal procedures.

Religious Conflict from Early Christianity to the Rise of Islam Wendy Mayer, Bronwen Neil, 2013-08-29 Conflict has been an inescapable facet of religion from its very beginnings. This volume offers insight into the mechanisms at play in the centuries from the Jesus movement's first attempts to define itself over and against Judaism to the beginnings of Islam. Profiling research by scholars of the Centre for Early Christian Studies at Australian Catholic University, the essays document inter- and intra-religious conflict from a variety of angles. Topics relevant to the early centuries range from religious conflict between different parts of the Christian canon to types of conflict, the origins of conflict, strategies for winning, for conflict resolution, and the emergence of a language of conflict. For the fourth to seventh centuries, case studies from Asia Minor, Syria, Constantinople, Gaul, Arabia, and Egypt are presented. The volume closes with examinations of the Christian and Jewish response to Islam and of Islam's response to Christianity. Given the political and religious tensions in the world today, this volume is well positioned to find relevance and meaning in societies still grappling with the monotheistic religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Interreligious Relations Hallvard Hagelia, Markus Zehnder, 2017-05-18 This volume presents international perspectives on interreligious dialogue with a particular focus on how this can be found or understood within biblical texts. The volume is in four parts.

covering both the Old and New Testaments and related Greco Roman texts as well as the history of reception and issues of hermeneutics Issues of the relationships between religious cultures are assessed both in antiquity and modernity In Part 1 Old Testament contributions range from the discussion of the bible and plurality of theologies in church life Erhard Gerstenberger to the challenge of multi culturalism Cornelis Van Dam Part 2 New Testament and Greco Roman Texts considers such things as Pagan Jewish and Christian historiography Armin Baum and the different beliefs it is possible to discern in the Ephesian community Tor Vegge Part 3 provides issues from the history of reception including the role of Jesus in Islam Craig A Evans The volume is completed by a hermeneutical reflection by Jo e Kra ovec which draws the threads of dialogue together and questions how we can best examine the bible in a modern international multicultural society
