Contested Identities:

Contested Identities Roger Nicholson, Gertrud Szamosi, Claudia Marquis, 2015-09-04 This volume brings together essays that individually and collectively address the force of the literary text with regard to problematic identities They work out of shared concerns with literary representations of this issue in different regions nations and communities that often prove divided they pursue questions related to textual identity where the literary text itself is contested internally or in its generic and historical relations In sum these studies actively test identity as social or literary concept discovering in difference the very condition of a useful if paradoxical sense of personal or textual coherence What happens to us when we move between different cultures or different societies defined in geographical or historical terms What happens to texts and textual practices in these same circumstances What happens to us when we are obliged to adapt to a new social order Homi Bhabha speaks of cultural difference as calling into play what he calls cultural translation What happens to identity the narrative that fashions a continued sense of self in this case Difference raised to alterity demands that we accord functional and philosophical value not just to other aspects but also to the aspect of the other At the level of personal or textual agency however difference contests and threatens to subvert stable selfhood composing a scene of conflict Even so it often proves to be instrumental in re charging a sense of the cultural valence of the literary text not least by virtue of its political implications In this regard the border where difference materialises has considerable presence in contributions to this volume prompting appreciation of texts that work on or travel across such borders however haphazardly and dangerously but also those that compose border textualities Negotiating and Contesting Identities in Linguistic Landscapes Robert Blackwood, 2016-02-25 This collection represents contemporary perspectives on important aspects of research into the language in the public space known as the Linguistic Landscape LL with the focus on the negotiation and contestation of identities From four continents and examining vital issues across North America Africa Europe and Asia scholars with notable experience in LL research are drawn together in this the latest collection to be produced by core researchers in this field Building on the growing published body of research into LL work the fifteen data chapters test challenge and advance this sub field of sociolinguistics through their close examination of languages as they appear on the walls and in the public spaces of sites from South Korea to South Africa from Italy to Israel from Addis Ababa to Zanzibar The geographic coverage is matched by the depth of engagement with developments in this burgeoning field of scholarship As such this volume is an up to date collection of research chapters each of which addresses pertinent and important issues within their respective geographic spaces Nation-building and Contested Identities Balázs Trencsényi, 2001 Heinrich Heine's Contested Identities Jost Hermand, Robert C. Holub, 1999 Collects papers from an October 1997 conference that took place in Berkeley California Papers examine how the Heine s identity was formed reformed and revised in relationship to the politics religion and nationalism of his era Several papers focus on his Jewish identity and most touch on his relationship to the politics of his era offering not a radically different vision of Heine but one that recognizes the ambivalences and vacillations as well as the development and consistency of his complex identity No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Transformation through Local, Regional, and Global Engagement Peter M. Kellett, Thomas G. Matyók, 2016-12-13 Central to a transformational approach to conflict is the idea that conflicts must be viewed as embedded within broader relational patterns and social and discursive structures and must be addressed as such This implies the need for systemic change at generative levels in order to create genuine transformation at the level of particular conflicts Central also to this book is the idea that the origins of transformation can be momentary or situational small scale or micro level as well as bigger and more systemic or macro level Micro level changes involve shifts and meaningful changes in communication and related patterns that are created in communication between people Such transformative changes can radiate out into more systemic levels and systemic transformative changes can radiate inwards to more micro levels This book engages this transformative framework Within this framework this book pulls together current work that epitomizes and highlights the contribution of communication scholarship and communication centered approaches to conflict transformation in local community regional environmental and global conflicts in various parts of the world The resulting volume presents an engaging mix of scholarly chapters think pieces and experiences from the field of practice The book embraces a wide variety of theoretical and methodological approaches as well as transformative techniques and processes including narrative dialogic critical cultural linguistic conversation analytic discourse analytic and rhetorical This book makes a valuable contribution to the ongoing dialogue across and between disciplines and people on how to transform conflicts creatively sustainably and ethically

Sport and Contested Identities David Hassan, Ciaran Acton, 2017-09-07 Identity is one of the most theorised and contested of all sociological concepts and sport is fertile ground for an examination of its complexities This book offers a wide ranging and up to date exploration of the sport identity nexus drawing examples from a variety of sporting contexts and geographical locations and incorporating a diversity of perspectives including players spectators officials the media and policy makers Covering key themes in the social scientific study of sport such as gender ethnicity and national identity it considers the impact of social cultural and technological change on the formation of sporting identities Including original real life case studies each chapter makes a unique contribution to our understanding of the complex relationship between sport and identity As this relationship is embedded within the broader structures of power that frame social inequality this book also poses important questions about the role of sport related initiatives in our society today as well as in years to come Sport and Contested Identities Contemporary Issues and Debates is fascinating reading for all students and scholars of the sociology of sport Contested Identities and Common Narratives Carl B. Anderson,2011 Contested Identities: Racial Indeterminacy and Law in the American Novel, 1900-1942 Rebecca S Nisetich,2014 In Contested Identities I chart the path of the legal and literary discourses on racial identity codified by the 1896 Plessy v Ferguson decision and culturally ascendant in the early decades of the twentieth century In this period a group of American writers produced fiction that implicitly challenged this legal and cultural discourse My project explores the literary productions of Charles W Chesnutt Nella Larsen and William Faulkner three writers who undermine question and critique the legal and social practices that seek to define and contain individual identities in binary terms Specifically in Contested Identities I explore why Chesnutt Larsen and Faulkner create characters whose identities are not clearly articulated defined or knowable and why they intentionally position these figures in relation to the law At the center of each of these texts there remains a void where racial information might be clearly articulated defined or corroborated but isn't This enables Chesnutt Larsen and Faulkner to underscore an unresolved tension between what must be true and what cannot be known a dynamic which throws into relief the maddening complexity of human experience in opposition to cut and dry legal and popular definitions of race which operate under the assumption that blood proportions are easily known and that specific blood proportions determine identity I argue that it is racial indeterminacy that animates these writers explorations of identity and that it is the fundamental theme that binds these characters and texts together The law treats race as a matter of identity my dissertation argues that the law is instead a crucial factor in the formation of the racial identity of individual characters The Contested Identities of Ulster Catholics Thomas Paul Burgess,2018-06-20 This book investigates the often fragmented nature of Ulster Nationalist Republican Roman Catholic politics culture and identity It offers a companion publication to The Contested Identities of Ulster Protestants 2015 Historically the Catholic community of Ulster are regarded as a unified and coherent group sharing cultural and political aspirations However the volume explores communities of many variants and strands belying the notion of an easy homogenous bloc in terms of identity political aspirations voting preferences and cultural identity These include historical differences within constitutional nationalism and Republicanism gender politics partition perceptions of this community from The Republic of Ireland and more The book will appeal to students and scholars across the fields of Politics Cultural Studies Sociology Irish Studies and Peace Studies Contested Identities Melissa Doak,1994 The Contested Plains Elliott West,1998 Deftly retracing a pivotal chapter in one of America's most dramatic stories Elliott West chronicles the struggles triumphs and defeats of both Indians and whites as they pursued their clashing dreams of greatness in the heart of the continent Identity and Difference Kathryn Woodward,1997-05-05 With Identity and Difference Kath Woodward outlines the challenge presented by key debates on identity to central questions of gender
