Contours Of A Christian Philosophy:

Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 1975      Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 1975

Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 2002 Kalsbeek clearly a true believer but otherwise not identified introduces general readers interested in Christian philosophy to Dooyeweerd's law Free U Philosophy of the Cosmogenic Idea He begins by perusing the nature of philosophy itself then discusses such topics as sphere sovereignty the faith aspect in restrictive and expansive functions the experience of identity structures of human society the problem of the Christian state types of enkaptic interlacements and the elements of philosophical anthropology The translation into English passed through several hands no Dutch publication is cited Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Philosophy of Religion C. Stephen Evans, R. Zachary Manis, 2010-02-23 With over 40 000 copies in print since its original publication in 1982 Steve Evans's Philosophy of Religion has served many generations of students In this new edition Zach Manis joins Evans in a thorough revamping of arguments and information while maintaining the qualities of clarity and brevity that made the first edition so appreciated      Contours of a Christian philosophy: an introduction to Herman Dooyeweerd's thought L. Kalsbeek, 1975      Contours of Christian Philosophy, 19??      Contours of a World View Arthur Frank Holmes, 1983 In a world ravaged by dehumanizing barbarism and torn by ideological conflict writes Arthur Holmes we have an obligation to rekindle and disseminate the Christian vision of a unified world view But to live and think Christianity in today's world does not come easily It means says Holmes ferreting out the influence of non Christian assumptions and bringing distinctively Christian presuppositions to bear in their place Contours of a World View which introduces the series sets the stage for this important task Holmes discusses the nature of world views both secular and Christian and the overall contours of a distinctively Christian world view in relationship to the history of ideas as well as to the contemporary mind outlining a Christian view of things as a live alternative to the naturalistic humanism prevalent today      The Kuyper Center Review, Volume 2 John Bowlin, 2011-04-07 The Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary was established in admiration of Kuyper whose life as pastor theologian journalist and politician remarkably exemplifies how confidence in the truth of a Christian worldview can be expressed in both theory and practice The chapters in this book were originally presented at the annual Kuyper Conferences of 2009 and 2010 and are inspired by the themes of those conferences Philosophy and Revelation A Celebration of the Centenary of Herman Bavinck's 1908 1909 Stone Lectures 2009 and Common Grace and A Common Word 2010      Sin and Politics Jeong Kii Min, 2009 Sin and Politics Issues in Reformed Theology is an overview of the relationship between sin and politics from the reformational point of view This short theological history is comprised of three parts politics without sin creational politics politics with sin fallen politics and politics beyond sin redeemed politics As a creation of human culture politics have been tainted with sinful distortion in this world but will be recovered in the future Kingdom by the eternal kingship of the Lord of Lords Sin and Politics includes a summary and commentary on political discussions by various Reformed theologians It uncovers the Reformed tradition s positive regard for politics and the profound theological root of politics Metaphysics William Hasker,1983-08-16 Helping readers create a consistently Christian worldview William Hasker addresses key questions of metaphysics and discusses possible answers In the Contours of Christian Philosophy series Metaphysics William Hasker,1983 Philosophy of Religion Or Religious Philosophy? Timo Koistinen,2000 Between God and Gold Robert A. Wauzzinski,1993 The heart of Between God and Gold can be located in the survey of three representative nineteenth century Evangelical figures evangelist Charles Finney scholar Francis Wayland and philanthropist clergyman Russell Conwell The lives and thought of these notables are unfolded concretely thereby showing how the Evangelical Industrial synthesis occurred Wauzzinski concludes the book by suggesting theological and economic alternatives hoping to show in these examples that a third way between capitalism and socialism can be found These possibilities are drawn from theoretical and practical sources and thus provide opportunities for greater social revitalization An interdisciplinary methodology is employed throughout this work The author works from the assumption that various fields of study while analytically separated do manifest a fundamental coherence Ethics Arthur F. Holmes,2009-08-20 Arthur Holmes addresses the questions What is good What is right How can we know In this second edition he also surveys a variety of approaches to ethics including cultural relativism emotivism ethical egoism and utilitarianism all with an acknowledgment of the new postmodern environment Our Idea of God Thomas V. Morris,2002 Evangelical Dictionary of Theology (Baker Reference Library) Walter A. Elwell,2001-05-01 Fifteen years after its original publication comes a thoroughly revised edition of the Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Every article from the original edition has been revisited With some articles being removed others revised and many new articles added the result is a completely new dictionary covering systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics Epistemology W. Jay Wood,2009-08-20 In this study of how we know what we know W Jay Wood surveys current views of foundationalism epistemic justification and reliabilism The Scandal of the Evangelical Mind Mark A. Noll,1995-10-19 The scandal of the evangelical mind is that there is not much of an evangelical mind So begins this award winning intellectual history and critique of the evangelical movement by one of evangelicalism s most respected historians Unsparing in his judgment Mark Noll ask why the largest single group of religious Americans who enjoy increasing wealth status and political influence have contributed so little to rigorous intellectual scholarship in North America In nourishing believers in the simple truths of the gospel why have evangelicals failed at sustaining a serious intellectual life and abandoned the universities the arts and other realms of high culture Noll is probing and forthright in his analysis of how this situation came about but he doesn t end there Challenging the evangelical community he sets out to find within evangelicalism itself resources for turning the situation around Natural Signs and Knowledge of God C. Stephen Evans,2010-05-27 Is there such a thing as natural knowledge of God C

Stephen Evans presents the case for understanding theistic arguments as expressions of natural signs in order to gain a new perspective both on their strengths and weaknesses. Three classical much discussed theistic arguments cosmological teleological and moral are examined for the natural signs they embody. At the heart of this book lie several relatively simple ideas. One is that if there is a God of the kind accepted by Christians Jews and Muslims then it is likely that a natural knowledge of God is possible. Another is that this knowledge will have two characteristics it will be both widely available to humans and yet easy to resist. If these principles are right a new perspective on many of the classical arguments for God's existence becomes possible. We understand why these arguments have for many people a continued appeal but also why they do not constitute conclusive proofs that settle the debate once and for all. Touching on the interplay between these ideas and contemporary scientific theories about the origins of religious belief particularly the role of natural selection in predisposing humans to form beliefs in God or gods Evans concludes that these scientific accounts of religious belief are fully consistent even supportive of the truth of religious convictions.
