Time Regained Delia Ungureanu, 2021-10-07 Awarded the Tudor Vianu Prize for Literary and Cultural Theory by the National Museum of Romanian Literature Over the past 30 years the fields of world literature and world cinema have developed on parallel but largely separate tracks with little recognition of their underlying similarities and the ways that each can learn from the other Time Regained does not move from literature to cinema but exists simultaneously in both fields The 7 filmmakers selected here Andrei Tarkovsky Akira Kurosawa Martin Scorsese Ra l Ru z Wong Kar Wai Stephen Daldry and Paolo Sorrentino are themselves also writers or people with literary training and they produce a new type of world cinema thanks to their understanding of the world simultaneously through literature and film In the process their films produce new readings of literary texts that world literature studies wouldn't have been able to achieve with its own instruments Time Regained examines how filmmakers build on literature to reconfigure the world as a landscape of dreams and how they use film to reinvent the narrative techniques of the authors on whom they draw The selected filmmakers draw inspiration from French surrealists modernists Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Marguerite Yourcenar and predecessors such as Dante and Cao Xueqin In the process these filmmakers cross the borders between film and literature nation and world dream and reality

The Epic in Film Constantine Santas, 2008 Constantine Santas encourages us to wonder why film critics have so routinely dismissed the epic film In The Epic in Film he argues that blockbuster and artistic are not mutually exclusive terms and perhaps more importantly epic film is an inherently profound genre in its ability to tap into a nation's and sometimes humanity's dreams and fears Why do we see dozens and dozens of films based on the King Arthur legend Why would a presidential hopeful borrow a phrase Read my lips from Clint Eastwood's Dirty Harry Why do war epics proliferate in times of war or national crisis Why are epics as a whole the most popular movie genre Start with an individual quest of some kind undertaken by an attractive hero or heroine add the weight of a nation and perhaps humanity into that character's struggle sprinkle some awe inspiring special effects and a general sense of largesse and don't forget the happy ending and there you have a recipe for a film that can contain the deepest emotions fear hope insecurity pride of a nation and sometimes a world Whether you love Gone with the Wind and hate Troy find Akira Kurosawa's films brilliant or marvel over the depth of the Matrix trilogy film buffs will want to read this first book length treatment of the epic a wildly popular infinitely fascinating and critically underappreciated genre
