Nancy A. Collins, 2014-07-01 A struggling artist finds a lost angel has crash landed atop her New York City apartment building and she must help the angel become mortal or return to heaven before it turns into a daemon. Struggling artist Lucy Bender is at the end of her rope. After being betrayed by both her boyfriend and a jealous rival in the cut-throat art world, she finds herself standing on the roof of her New York apartment contemplating suicide. Her luck is changed, however, when a misplaced angel named Joth plummets to Earth, landing at her feet. Lucy's first thought is to alert the media in the form of a sleazy reality TV show. But her dreams of instant fame and fortune are cut short when she discovers she's the only person who can see Joth for what it truly is. Making things even more difficult is the realization that the downed angel is attracting attention from servants of the Infernal Machine led by the daemon Meresin, who is eager to add Joth to his roster of imps and devils. Lucy is befriended by Ezrael, who was once like Joth and is now a wandering Muse. Ezrael warns her that if Joth fails to find its way back to where it came from, it will automatically become a daemon unless it chooses to become mortal. The only catch is that angels don't have free will. Can Lucy save her fallen angel from falling farther still? And is she willing to knock on heaven's door to do so?
