Anglo Chinese Encounters Since 1800 War Trade Science And Governance:

Anglo-Chinese Encounters Since 1800 Wang Gungwu,2003-04-07 Chinese encounters with the British were more than merely those between two great powers There was the larger canvas of the Empire and Commonwealth where the two peoples traded and interacted In China officials and merchants had to place the British beside other enterprising foreign peoples who were equally intent on influencing developments there There were also Chinese who encountered the British in personal ways and individual British who ventured into a vast unknown with its deep history Wang Gungwu s 2003 book based on lectures linking China and the Chinese with imperial Britain examines the possibilities in as well as the limits of their encounters It takes the story beyond the clichés of opium fighting and the diplomatic skills needed to fend off rivals and enemies and probes some areas of more intimate encounters not least the beginnings of a wider English speaking future

China's Development from a Global Perspective María Dolores Elizalde,Wang Jianlang,2017-11-06 For a long time the idea of China as a culture and society which was voluntarily secluding itself from the rest of the world was dominant But in reality China has always been part of the world just as the world has always sought to penetrate China The relationship between China and the world was in the past sometimes smooth and at other times it was difficult but nevertheless the bond remained alive This collection presents an analysis of China from a global perspective within a broad temporal and spatial spectrum It reveals the early relations established between the Roman Empire and China the dynamics developed with the countries of the Indian Ocean Southeast Asia and Japan and the gradual path of Europeans and Americans towards China The book reviews the development of diplomatic relations the signing of agreements and alliances and the rise and resolution of conflicts It also analyses the forging of economic relations the establishment of commercial best known for his explorations of Chinese history in the long view and for his writings on the Chinese diaspora With Home is Not Here the historian of grand themes turns to a single life history his own In this volume Wang talks about his multicultural upbringing and life under British rule He was born in Surabaya Java but his parents orientation was always to China Wang grew up in the plural multi ethnic town of Ipoh Malaya now Malaysia He learned English in colonial schools and was taught the Confucian classics at home After the end of WWII and Japanese occupation he left for the National Central University in Nanjing to study alongside some of the finest of his generation of Chinese undergraduates The victory of Mao Zedong s Communist Party interrupted his education and he ends this volume with his return to Malaya Wise and moving this is a fascinating reflection on family identity and belonging and on the ability of the individual to find a place amid the historical currents that have shaped Asia and the world American Journal of Chinese Studies ,2005 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2003 The Chinese Historical Review ,2007 China Review International ,2004 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2003 Hong Kong Cinema Since 1997 Vivian P.Y. coverage including Myanmar Thailand Laos Vietnam Cambodia Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Brunei and the Philippines The text is richly illustrated with more than fifty tables figures and maps that present the latest economic and political data to help students better visualize trends and demographics Each chapter ends with extensive lists of suggested readings
