Angry Voices An Anthology Of The Offbeat New Egyptian Poets:

Angry Voices Muhammad Mutawalli, 2003 Angry Voices , 2001 The Advocate , 2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States An Angry Poet Alan Blenkhorn, 2014-05-21 Poems describing the episodes and events that contributed to the author's mental instability Surplus Skin Ibrahim Abdelfattah, 2025-12-17 In Surplus Skin Ibrahim Abdelfattah performs a visceral autopsy of the modern poetic soul peeling back the epidermis of the mundane to reveal the hemorrhaging silence beneath This collection is a surgical deconstruction of the night that has thickened into a suffocating excess layer of flesh a vast prison without walls where time gains weight and compresses the chest of the city Ibrahim Abdelfattah's voice operates within the phenomenology of alienation where the self is a fluid unstable construct terrified that a name might stick to it permanently He navigates a Cairo that is less a geography and more a capital of ice a landscape where the meekness of killers allows War to sit casually on a balcony smoking a cigarette while the world trembles Here the boundaries between the corporeal and the ethereal dissolve memory is a coat heavy with mud that one yearns to shed and identity is merely a mask worn in the disguise room sustained by the K particle of simile These poems are a manifesto for the ecstatic wanderers and the poets who corrupted love offering a stark unflinching look at a reality where endings are fair but brutal and where the only salvation lies in the laughter etched onto the face of ruin Sulfur Editions 2025 The Rag Song Ossama Farahat, 2021-07-12 It is rare to find on the shelves of bookstores a poetry anthology written by a poet in two languages with equal fluency The Rag Song is one of those rare books that brings together the English translation and the original poems written in Arabic Egyptian language selected from ten collections published by Ossama Farahat over about three decades from the first book One Breath 1994 to In Short 2021 The Rag Song manifests the poet Ossama Farahat as the translator of his own poems written in Arabic Egyptian into another language English in this case without losing the essence of the poetry in both languages The experience of the poet Ossama Farahat is a significant poetic experience in the Arabic Egyptian language best described as The Imagination of Necessity Accordingly the poet is seen to be absorbed in his society's issues as well as reenact them as poetry Farahat never fails to attend to such issues in every matter he deems necessary You rarely find in his poetry moments of distraction from the community its worries and its dreams He takes matters without belittling and if he does so he resorts to the popular mold in which he pours his satirical and bitter satire on social cultural and political situations Ossama Farahat is a poet whose eyes are on the street It is his first and last point of reference His poetic experience in its entirety can be viewed as belonging to what we might call The Poetry of the Field where he is keen on pursuing facts events sites and characters that constitute prominent social and political signs observing their manifestations and reenacting them through his stance and ground breaking vision of the world You can find more online poems and critical readings for Ossama Farahat in his webpages on both YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/user/khadeeg>
