Caras,1972 The Courtship of Animals William Plane Pycraft,1914 Animal Courtship Krista West,2009 Animal courtship is a process that results in two mature members of a species becoming a couple usually with the intent to mate and produce offspring Different species of bugs birds fish reptiles amphibians and mammals have their unique sets of courtship rules and rituals In Animal Courtship learn the various ways species attract mates including by singing dancing glowing and even attacking The Play of Animals Karl Groos,1898 Perceptions of Human-Animal Relationships and their Impacts on Animal Ethics, Law and Research Cédric Sueur,Marie Pelé,Tetsuro Matsuzawa,Jean-Yves Georges,2021-02-09 Human-Animal Relationships in Equestrian Sport and Leisure Katherine Dashper,2016-10-04 Provides an in depth analysis of human horse relationships in equestrian sport and leisure Contains original research on the ways that human society is structured around interaction with nonhuman others Explores the individual and collective identities that are performed through involvement in the horse world A Handbook of Summer Camps ,1928 Human/Animal Relationships in Transformation Augusto Vitale,Simone Pollo,2022-02-11 The ethics of human animal relationships is a growing field of academic research and a topic for public discussion and regulatory interventions from law makers governments and private institutions Human animal relationships are in transformation and understanding the nature of this process is crucial for all those who believe that the enlargement of moral and legal recognition to nonhuman animals is part of contemporary moral and political progress Understanding the nature of this process means analysing and critically discussing the philosophical scientific and legal concepts and arguments embedded in it This book contributes to the discussion by bringing together the ideas and reflections of leading experts from different disciplinary backgrounds and with a range of scientific perspectives This book both provides an up to date examination of the transformation of human animal relationships and presents ideas to foster this process Wild Connection Jennifer L. Verdolin,2014 Wild Kingdom meets Sex and the City in this scientific perspective on dating and relationships A specialist in animal behavior compares the courtship rituals and mating behaviors of animals to their human equivalents revealing the many and often surprising ways we are both similar to and different from other species What makes an individual attractive to the opposite sex Does size matter Why do we tend to keep score in our relationships From perfume and cosmetics to online dating and therapy our ultimate goal is to successfully connect with someone So why is romance such an effort for humans while animals have little trouble getting it right Wild Connection is full of fascinating and suggestive observations about animal behavior For example in most species smell is an important component of determining compatibility So are we humans doing the right thing by masking our natural scents with soaps and colognes Royal albatrosses have a lengthy courtship period lasting several years These birds instinctively know that casual hook ups are not the way to find a reliable mate And older female chimpanzees often mate with younger males Is this the evolutionary basis of the human cougar phenomenon Fun to read as well as educational this unique take on the perennial human quest to find the ideal mate shows that we have much to learn from our cousins in the wild The London Quarterly & Holborn Review ,1904 The American Journal of Psychology Granville Stanley Hall,Edward Bradford Titchener,Karl M.
