Create Your Own Life Writings:

Writing True Stories Patti Miller, 2023-05-31 Writing True Stories is the essential book for anyone who has ever wanted to write a memoir or explore the wider territory of creative nonfiction. It provides practical guidance and inspiration on a vast array of writing topics including how to access memories, find a narrative voice, build a vivid world on the page, create structure, use research, and face the difficulties of truth telling. This book introduces and develops key writing skills and then challenges more experienced writers to extend their knowledge and practice of the genre into literary nonfiction, true crime, biography, the personal essay, and travel and sojourn writing. Whether you want to write your own autobiography, investigate a wide-ranging political issue, or bring to life an intriguing history, this book will be your guide. Writing True Stories is practical and easy to use, as well as an encouraging and insightful companion on the writing journey. Written in a warm, clear, and engaging style, it will get you started on the story you want to write and keep you going until you reach the end. Life

Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age, self-publishing, self-broadcasting, and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive. This is also the age of the witness, the age of testimony, in which first-hand accounts, personal experience, life change, and evolution are valued for good or ill, over distanced reflection. What are we to make of all this telling of lives? The essays collected in Life Writing: The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and, in doing so, demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself. The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge posed to writers, teachers, and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics, curators, editors, and biographers including Neal Ascherson, Victoria Glendinning, Professor Kathryn Hughes, Hanif Kureishi, Blake Morrison, and Lawrence Goldman, editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography. This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era-defining genre and, as such, presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age.

Create Your School Library Writing Center Timothy Horan, 2016-10-16 Colleges typically have writing centers to which students can bring their writing assignments to a peer tutor for assistance, but most high schools and middle schools do not. This book advocates for the creation of writing centers in 7-12 schools and explains why the school library is the best place for the writing center. There is a glaring absence of writing centers in today's K-12 schools. More and more students are being asked in college entrance testing to submit samples of their writing, and employers are expecting their workers to write correctly and clearly. This book addresses the critical lack of writing centers below the undergraduate level. It demonstrates how middle school and high school librarians can create writing centers in their school libraries, explains how to assist students through a one-on-one writing tutorial method, and gives students and teachers the tools for learning and understanding the complex art of writing. Author Timothy Horan, inventor of the School Library Writing Center, establishes why school libraries represent the best and most logical places to create writing centers and why school librarians are the natural choice to direct writing center operations He then takes readers through the process of creating a writing center from original conception up through opening day Additional topics covered include how to publicize and grow your School Library Writing Center maintaining your writing center for efficient operation on a daily basis as well as for years to come how to become an effective writing center director and writing tutor the most current technology that can be used to assist in the writing composition and research process and working with English language learner ELL students within your writing center
