Creating Theatre August W. Staub, 1973      Theater Directing Kazimierz Braun, 2000 Polish born director writer playwright and scholar Braun State U of New York Buffalo sets down the approach to creative theatre directing that he teaches in his classes It is based on the two premises that directing is an act of creating of making something out of nothing and that is also a craft that requires skills techniques methods and tools to express the artistic energies and spiritual abundance of human life After an introduction he discusses shaping a theater style creative text analysis creating the human layer of the performance performance space and time action mind and imagination the director s practical preparations implementing the project before rehearsals creative rehearsals and final rehearsals leading to the opening The text is double spaced Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Director's Vision Louis E. Catron, 2010-03-22 The Directors Vision is a dynamic practical text that focuses equally on the art of interpretation and on problem solving Catron helps students develop an organized step by step methodology from play analysis through performance Practical focus Catron deftly combines abstract ideas about directing with concrete strategies on preparing for production auditions casting and rehearsals Comprehensive scope Included are important topics such as in depth play analysis directorial responsibilities and ethics leadership techniques how to work with actors and problem solving Exercises End of chapter exercises help students digest what theyve read and get actively involved in the craft of directing Quotes and illustrations Thoughts from well known directors actors and writers appear throughout the book providing motivation insight and perspective Abundant photographs and diagrams offer effective dynamic examples of concepts      The Director as Collaborator Robert Knopf, 2015-10-05 The Director as Collaborator teaches essential directing skills while emphasizing how directors and theatre productions benefit from collaboration Good collaboration occurs when the director shares responsibility for the artistic creation with the entire production including actors designers stage managers and technical staff Leadership does not preclude collaboration in theatre these concepts can and should be complementary Students will develop their abilities by directing short scenes and plays and by participating in group exercises      The Art and Practice of Directing for Theatre Paul B. Crook, 2024-10-08 The formation and communication of vision is one of the primary responsibilities of a director before ever getting to the nuts and bolts of the process The Art and Practice of Directing for Theatre Second Edition helps the young director learn how to discover harness and meld the two Providing both a practical and theoretical foundation for directors this book explores how to craft an artistic vision for a production and sparks inspiration in directors to put their learning into practice This new edition is fully revised to address changes in theatre since the Covid pandemic new technology intimacy direction and inclusive practices It features Guidance through day to day aspects of directing including a director s skillset and tools script analysis and rehearsal structure Advice on collaborating with production teams and actors building communication skills and tools and integrating digital media into these practices Discussion questions and practical worksheets covering script analysis blocking and planning rehearsals Updated references to reflect the changes in the theatre community and profession since the original writing Updated examples of studies and technology This book is written for students in Theatre Directing courses along with new and aspiring theatrical directors The Art and Practice of Directing for Theatre Second Edition includes access to downloadable worksheets available at www.routledge.com 9781032619514
