Family Faith Nights
Mike Nappa, 2026-10-13
Bring your family closer together and closer to God through 50 fun and creative devotional activities. Do you struggle with family devotional time? Do your kids seem uninterested in learning more deeply about God's word? With easy-to-lead, engaging hands-on activities, parents can grow their relationships with their kids and their kids' spiritual relationships at the same time. Each activity requires only 5-10 minutes of preparation and is flexible in its length. The activities start with a fun moment to introduce the theme, such as playing Would You Rather or creating a family Museum of Greatness, before moving on to the interactive section with activities like turning off all the lights and only using a flashlight or doing things backwards by turning their clothes around and eating dessert before dinner. Parents will then dive into the Scripture passage to illustrate how the activities relate to the Bible and then discuss practical ways to apply the message in everyday life. With careful guidance and support, parents can effectively encourage their children to know love and follow Jesus.
