Creative Cultures:

Creative Selves / Creative Cultures Stacy Holman Jones, Marc Pruyn, 2017-11-29 This book addresses and demonstrates the importance of critical approaches to autoethnography particularly the commitment that such approaches make to theorizing the personal and to creating work that embodies a social justice ethos Arts based and practice led approaches to this work allow the explanatory power of critical theory to be linked with creative aesthetically engaging and personal examples of the ideas at work By making use of personal stories critical autoethnography also allows for commenting on critiquing and transforming damaging and unjust cultural beliefs and practices by questioning and problematizing the relationships of power that are bound up in these selves cultures and practices The essays in this volume provide readers with work that demonstrates how critical autoethnography offers researchers and scholars across multiple disciplines a method for creatively putting critical theory into action The book will be vital reading for students researchers and scholars working in the fields of education communication studies sociology and cultural anthropology and the performing arts

Youth, Music and Creative Cultures Geraldine Bloustien, Margaret Peters, 2011-10-03 This book offers an evocative cross cultural exploration into the everyday lives and music practices of young people from their own broad social cultural and ethnic perspectives Youth from seven urban locales in Australia the UK the US and Europe document and reflect on their own learning processes and music activities
