

Dream Analysis Story

You will write and illustrate your own dream storybook! Use your imagination to create a short, fun, or wacky dream story, then analyze the hidden meanings.

Steps

1. Choose Your Symbols

Pick 3–4 dream symbols (like falling, being chased, or finding a secret door).

2. Write Your Storybook

- Write your dream like it's a children's story (simple sentences, fun details, a beginning, middle, and end).
- Example:

"One night, I was running through a forest when a giant spider chased me. I tripped and started falling until I landed in a classroom where I had to take a test I couldn't finish!"

3. Illustrate Your Story

Draw a simple picture on each page to go with the story. (Stick figures, doodles, or collages are fine!)

4. Analyze the Dream

At the end of your storybook, write a page called "What My Dream Means". Use the Dream Key to explain your symbols.

- Example:
  - Spider: I might feel trapped or overwhelmed.
  - Falling: I feel like I'm not in control.
  - Test I couldn't finish: I'm stressed about school.

5. Reflection Page

Finish your storybook with one last page called "Do I Believe It?" where you explain if you think the meanings really connect to your life, or if dreams are just silly stories.
