Belarusian Fine Art: Time and Time Again Zina Gimpelevich, 2023-02-06 It's hard to imagine feeling a sense of loss for artwork until you become immersed in the stories of the Belarusian fine artists Dr Zina Gimpelevich has spotlighted in her newest book She brought to life artists whose work was curtailed under the tyranny of the Russian Empire the tragedy of the Holocaust and persistent poverty Yet these artists' collective resilience and the work they produced paintings sculptures textiles ceramics and more have helped bring beauty and joy to the world even when depicting the suffering felt by so many In Belarusian Fine Art Time and Time Again Dr Gimpelevich celebrates the work of over 150 Belarusian fine artists including many from the School of Paris She estimates more than 3 000 Belarusian artists are creating today in Belarus her birth country Many remained in their home country Many became migrants who traveled beyond borders and never returned home Native sons such as Mark Chagall and Markus Yaka Levi Rotkovi Mark Rothko have left their influence and work the world over and are often claimed by other countries Other fine artists created in obscurity or self-imposed exile hiding their work to avoid the grasp of oppressive regimes Dr Gimpelevich has ensured their names and work will not be forgotten and will receive the recognition they richly deserve The harsh truths Dr Gimpelevich brings to light are tempered with glimmers of hope from recent generation Belarusian fine artists Like their predecessors and mentors their work shows an unyielding reverence for their country's landscapes culture history and people Although this book has its lens focused on Belarusian fine art Dr Gimpelevich adeptly provides readers with a deeper understanding of how politics and power struggles have affected this little-known country's citizens many of which still endure today Andrei Zadorine, 2008* As an aesthetic movement Abstract Art has had its time at least in terms of being the dominant style of modernism Fine art can be recognizable again and Realism is once again receiving due appreciation But what is realism in a world where our perception is continually influenced by the media We regard reality very differently than we did in the past now even the idea of a single reality is questionable The discovery of photography was of fundamental importance to the way in which artists began to represent the world around them by bringing it to a standstill The artist Andrei Zadorine adds an extra dimension to this aspect of his work by sequencing still images to form a painted photographic series In using the medium of oil paint he consciously endows his image choices with extra power and emotional weight Is Andrei Zadorine's work a new fixed star in the firmament of fine art Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2004-08 Catalogo, 2005 La Biennale Di Venezia, 2005 Art in America, 2003 Studia nad malarstwem współczesnym.
