Angels Monsters:

Double Agents Erin Carlston, 2013-03-12 Why were white bourgeois gay male writers so interested in spies espionage and treason in the twentieth century Erin G Carlston believes such figures and themes were critical to exploring citizenship and its limits requirements and possibilities in the modern Western state Through close readings of Proust's novels Auden's poetry and Kushner's play Angels in America which all reference real life espionage cases involving Jews homosexuals or Communists Carlston connects gay men's fascination with spying into larger debates about the making and contestation of social identity Incorporating readings of nonliterary cultural artifacts such as trial transcripts into her analysis Carlston pinpoints moments when national self conceptions in France England and the United States grew unstable linking the twentieth century tensions around citizenship to the social and political concerns of three generations of influential writers

Klezmer America Jonathan Freedman, 2009-10-22 Klezmer is a continually evolving musical tradition that grows out of Eastern European Jewish culture and its changes reflect Jews interaction with other groups as well as their shifting relations to their own history But what happens when in the klezmer spirit the performances that go into the making of Jewishness come into contact with those that build different forms of cultural identity Jonathan Freedman argues that terms central to the Jewish experience in America notions like the immigrant the ethnic and even the model minority have worked and continue to intertwine the Jewish American with the experiences histories and imaginative productions of Latinos Asians African Americans and gays and lesbians among others He traces these relationships in a number of arenas the crossover between jazz and klezmer and its consequences in Philip Roth's The Human Stain the relationship between Jewishness and queer identity in Tony Kushner's Angels in America fictions concerning crypto Jews in Cuba and the Mexican American borderland the connection between Jews and Christian apocalyptic narratives stories of new immigrants by Bharathi Mukherjee Gish Jen Lan Samantha Chang and Gary Shteyngart and the revisionary relation of these authors to the classic Jewish American immigrant narratives of Henry Roth Bernard Malamud and Saul Bellow By interrogating the fraught and multidimensional uses of Jews Judaism and Jewishness Freedman deepens our understanding of ethnoracial complexities
