Roy,2004 A delectable collection of writing on food and its place in our lives that brings together some of the most significant Indian voices over the last century From lavish meals modern diets and cooking lessons that serve as a rite of passage to fake fasts and real ones fish feni and fiery meals that smack of revenge this book has something to satisfy every palate Gandhi s guilt ridden account of his failed flirtation with eating meat starkly complements Ruchir Joshi s toast to the senses as he describes his characters discovering a truly alternative use for some perfectly innocent shrikhand In unique gastronomic takes on history Salman Rushdie Amitav Ghosh and Saadat Hasan Manto ensure that we will never look at chutney a Tibetan momo or jelly in quite the same way again Mapping Appetite Pere Gallardo-Torrano,Jopi Nyman,2009-03-26 As recent years have witnessed a strong interest in the cultural representation of the culinary ranging from analyses of food representation in film and literature to cultural readings of recipes menus national cuisines and celebrity chefs the study of food narratives amidst contemporary consumer culture has become increasingly more important This book seeks to respond to the challenge by presenting a series of case studies dealing with the representation of food and the culinary in a variety of cultural texts including post colonial and popular fiction women s magazines and food writing The contributors to the first part of the volume explore the various functions of food in post colonial writing ranging from Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai to Zadie Smith and Maggie Gee in the context of globalization and multiculturalism In the second part of the volume the focus is on two genres of popular fiction the romantic novel and science fiction While the romantic novels of Joanne Harris for instance link food and cooking with female empowerment in science fiction food is connected with power and technology The essays in the third part of the book explore the role of food in travel writing women s magazines and African American cookery books showing how issues of gender nation and race are present in food narratives Anglistica ,2002 Indian Review of Books ,1997 Indian English Literature, 1980-2000 M. Sanga,2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie s Booker Prize winning novel Midnight s Children in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje s The English Patient many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals Journal of Literature and Aesthetics ,2006 Himāl ,1999 South Asian Diaspora in North America Pramod Kumar Mishra,Urmila Mohapatra,2002 Australian Book Review ,2000 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2000 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Indian Books in Print ,2003 Writing Imagined Diasporas Joel Kuortti,2007 Joel Kuortti TM s Writing Imagined Diasporas South Asian Women Reshaping North American Identity is a study of diasporic South Asian women writers It argues that the diasporic South Asians are not merely assimilating to their host cultures but they are also actively reshaping them through their own new voices bringing new definitions of identity As diaspora does not emerge as a mere sociological fact but it becomes what it is because it is said to be what it is the writings of imagined diasporas challenge national discourses Diaspora brings to mind various contested ideas and images It can be a positive site for the affirmation of an identity or conversely a negative site of fears of losing that identity Diaspora signals an engagement with a matrix of diversity of cultures languages histories people places times What distinguishes diaspora from some other types of travel is its centripetal dimension It does not only mean that people are dispersed in different places but that they congregate in other places forming new communities In such gatherings new allegiances are forged that supplant earlier commitments New imagined communities arise that not simply substitute old ones but form a hybrid space in between various identifications This book looks into the ways in which diasporic Indian literature handles these issues In the context of diaspora there is an imaginative construction of collective identity in the making That a given diaspora comes to be seen as a community is the result of a process of imagining at the same time creating new marginalities hybridities and dependencies resulting in multiple marginalizations hyphenizations and demands for allegiance The study concentrates on eleven contemporary women writers from the United States and Canada who write on South Asian diasporic experiences The writers are Ramabai Espinet Jhumpa Lahiri Amulya Malladi Sujata Massey Bharati Mukherjee Uma Parameswaran Kirin Narayan Anita Rau Badami Robbie Clipper Sethi Shauna Singh Baldwin and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan Seagull Theatre Quarterly ,1996
