

A person is riding an elephant across a body of water at sunset. The sun is a large, bright orange circle in the sky, and its reflection is visible in the water. The elephant and rider are silhouetted against the bright sky. The background shows a line of trees on the far shore. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

Bernard E Rollin The Animal Ethics Reader Susan Jean Armstrong, Richard George Botzler, 2003 The Animal Ethics Reader Susan J. Armstrong, 2008-06-01 The Animal Ethics Reader Susan Jean Armstrong, Richard George Botzler, 2008 This volume provides a comprehensive anthology of readings on this substantial area of study and interest The book is designed to appeal to anyone interested in tracing the history of the subject as well as providing a powerful insight into the debate as it has developed Juris Zoology Geordie Duckler, 2022-03-14 This book exists at the intersection of two complementary and conflicting perspectives law and biology From the vantage point of both disciplines Juris Zoology provides a comprehensive and realistic framework to objectively assess the role and significance of animals in American civil and criminal law Contrasting the views of animal rights activists Duckler examines animals in terms of their prehistory history biology social utility economic effect and aesthetic value Focusing on animal captivity control use and value Duckler refutes the proposal of granting animal s legal rights The book offers a new and controversial voice to the national conversation on the propriety of animal rights and would be of interest to lawyers economists sociologists as well as scholars and professionals in animal related fields Animals on Television Brett Mills, 2017-11-11 This book is the first in depth study of the representation of animals on television It explores the variety of ways animals are represented in audio visual media including wildlife documentaries and children s animated series and the consequences these representations have for those species Brett Mills discusses key ideas and approaches essential for thinking about animals drawing on relevant debates in philosophy politics gender studies humanism and posthumanism and ethics The chapters examine different animal representations focusing on zoos pets wildlife and meat They present case studies including discussions of Peppa Pig The Hunt and The Dog Whisperer This book will be of interest to readers exploring media studies contemporary television animal studies and debates about representation Applied Animal Ethics Leland Shapiro, 2000 Covering ethical issues involving animals this text covers their role in food research food production sports and as companions Although theoretical aspects are presented the main focus is on the application of these ethics to real life Animal Ethics Robert Garner, 2005-09-02 This book is an attempt to lead the way through the moral maze that is our relationship with nonhuman animals Written by an author with an established reputation in this field the book takes the reader step by step through the main parameters of the debate demonstrating at each turn the different positions adopted In the second part of the book the implications of holding each position for the ethical permissibility of what is done to animals in laboratories farms the home and the wild are explained Garner starts by asking whether animals have any moral standing before moving on to assess exactly what degree of moral status ought to be accorded to them It is suggested that whilst animals should not be granted the same moral status as humans they are worthy of greater moral consideration than the orthodox animal welfare position allows As a result it is suggested that many of the ways we currently treat animals are morally illegitimate In the final chapter the issue of political praxis is tackled How are reforms to the ways in which animals are treated to be achieved This book suggests that currently

dominant debates about insider status and direct action are less important than the question of agency That is the important question is not what is done to change the way animals are treated as much as whom is to be mobilised to join the cause Students of philosophy politics and environmental issues will find this an essential textbook
