Eylon,2003 This study demonstrates that the rabbinic belief system regarding the afterlife and the human soul was the paramount influence on the development of the doctrine of reincarnation that was crystallized in the Sefer ha Bahir The Book of Clarity Illumination a 12th century work written in Hebrew and Aramaic Prior research has noted the great impact Gnosticism had on early Jewish mysticism in general and the Sefer ha Bahir in particular The analysis of the talmudic and midrashic sources presents a broad spectrum of ideas concerning the eternity and immortality of the soul the nature and characteristics of the soul and the notions of the resurrection of the dead and reincarnation These ideas brought together in the study as a systematic theology reveal a fairly developed tradition that was probably known to the author or editor of the Sefer ha Bahir

The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly,1995 Includes various reports of the Association Toronto Journal of Theology ,1995 The Gospel of Mary of Magdala Karen L. King,2003 Lost for more than fifteen hundred years the Gospel of Mary is the only existing early Christian gospel written in the name of a woman Karen L King tells the story of the recovery of this remarkable gospel and offers a new translation This brief narrative presents a radical interpretation of Jesus teachings as a path to inner spiritual knowledge It rejects his suffering and death as a path to eternal life and exposes the view that Mary Magdalene was a prostitute for what it is a piece of theological fiction The Gospel of Mary of Magdala offers a glimpse into the conflicts and controversies that shaped earliest Christianity

The Formation of the Biblical Canon: Volume 2 Lee Martin McDonald,2017-01-26 Lee Martin McDonald provides a magisterial overview of the development of the biblical canon the emergence of the list of individual texts that constitutes the Christian bible In these two volumes in sum more than double the length of his previous works McDonald presents his most in depth overview to date McDonald shows students and researchers how the list of texts that constitute the bible was once far more fluid than it is today and guides readers through the minefield of different texts different versions and the different lists of texts considered canonical that abounded in antiquity Questions of the origin and transmission of texts are introduced as well as consideration of innovations in the presentation of texts collections of documents archaeological finds and Church councils In the first volume McDonald reexamines issues of canon formation once considered settled and sets the range of texts that make up the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament in their broader context Each individual text is discussed as are the cultural political and historical situations surrounding them This second volume considers the New Testament and the range of so called apocryphal gospels that were written in early centuries and used by many Christian groups before the canon was closed Also included are comprehensive appendices which show various canon lists for both Old and New Testaments and for the bible as a whole

Jesus in the Nag Hammadi Writings Majella Franzmann,1996 Many of the Nag Hammadi writings are considered heretical and therefore not valid sources for traditions about the founder Jesus Majella Franzmann however shows that it is a mistake to believe that Christianity was a homogeneous entity from the first and that the only valid traditions about the founder are preserved by those early Christians who became the dominant mainstream group The whole range of early Christian movements including the Gnostic Christian movements cannot be separated and identified simply as orthodox or heretical from the beginning The Nag Hammadi texts were discovered in 1945 near Luxor in Egypt From these writings Majella Franzmann presents a fascinating and radically different portrait or series of portraits of Jesus and of the world into which he came Majella Franzmann's work advances our whole understanding of the origins development and present identity of Christians and Christianity ISBN 3-89500-095-7 Stephen Emmel,1999 Elenchus of Biblica ,1993
