DRUKPA KUNLEY Needrup Zangpo,2025-02-17 Drukpa Kunley 1455 1529 one of the most well known saints of Bhutan redefined the course of spiritual and religious pursuits through his unconventional paths to enlightenment Believed by many to be a divine madman he called himself an aimless wandering yogi but there was an educative method to his madness and a transcendent wisdom to his aura He was fiercely non conformist critiquing religious hypocrisy and describing it as a canker eating away at Buddha dharma Despite not being from Bhutan he left an indelible mark on Bhutanese culture as evidenced by the popularity of the phallic symbol in the country In this book Needrup Zangpo retells thirty three tales about Drukpa Kunley from biographical and oral sources some of them for the first time With beautifully rendered illustrations accompanying each story Drukpa Kunley Sacred Tales of a Mad Monk is a perfect introduction to an iconic figure of Bhutanese culture

Chuang Tzu's "Crazy Wisdom" for Elders Donald P. St. John,2019-10-11 This book draws upon the classic work of the ancient Taoist storyteller philosopher Chuang Tzu 370 286 b c e to critique our society s conventional understanding of aging and its biased interpretations of the qualities exhibited by elders as well as alternative positive ways for an elder to develop his or her often neglected potentials and powers for elder growth To accomplish this the chapters of the book are meant to explore how the crazy wisdom of the Chuang Tzu and to a lesser degree the Lieh Tzu can assist us in reaching four goals 1 Contribute to a recognition of modern society s uncreative stereotypes and declinist prejudices associated with the meaning and process of aging as well as the social conformities that prepare children and adults to ignore the fires of personal growth 2 Present Chuang Tzu s alternative and positive interpretations of psychological and behavioral phenomena often criticized by family and friends which can and often do negatively affect an elder's sense of self. Chuang Tzu explores the deeper positive possibilities opened up through forgetting wandering and being useless. 3 Suggest ways Taoists can explore, engage with, and be energized by an integrated functioning of body, heart, mind, and spirit or spiritual energy (shen qi). 4 Help elders and others develop an appreciation for and sensitivity to the dynamic, harmonious, and diverse unity of the wider cosmic earth process, as well as to learn how to move with it and thus be uplifted by its felt presence and inspired by its innate wisdom. Pondering and emotionally and spiritually opening to the nature of the human life-death cycle in this wider context can be transforming, especially for wise elders according to Taoists Chuang Tzu and Lieh Tzu.

Nourishing the Soul Anne Adamcewicz Simpkinson, Charles H. Simpkinson, Rose Solari, 1995. Based on presentations given at the 1993 Common Boundary Conference of the same title when authors, artists, thinkers, teachers were brought together to discuss issues of the soul.

Shambhala Sun, 1994. The Spiritual Path H. F. de Wit, 1999. The Spiritual Path focuses on themes important for those dealing with fundamental life questions in their own lives or in their professions as spiritual caregivers, psychologists, or psychotherapists. Using an interreligious approach, Han de Wit offers psychological insights from the world's spiritual traditions to show how spiritual practices serve to cultivate our fundamental humanity. De Wit asks essential questions concerning that fundamental humanity: Why is it that some people experience and radiate an increasing measure of joy in their lives while others become increasingly anxious and fearful? And why do some people become wiser and more compassionate as a result of their experience of suffering while others break down under that same suffering? How can these two such differing psychological manifestations occur under similar circumstances? And can individuals influence these psychological outcomes, or does this lie beyond human control? The Spiritual Path describes an inner flourishing, an awakening in the human person that is specifically spiritual and the life's journey that is taken in light of such an awakening. By taking such a journey, de Wit argues, and living this contemplative life, a way of life for all times and all cultures, individuals can foster their own inner flourishing that may result in greater clarity of mind and joy in life. In this way, the Spiritual Path is both theoretical and practical. By acknowledging and utilizing the psychological insights found in spirituality, we are able to seek and find the spiritual path even as we live in the everyday world.
